PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

As the day again approaches, O our Heavenly Father, when a grateful nation, according to beautiful custom, will go out and pay a floral tribute to those who incarnadined the earth with their blood because of their love for and devotion to their country, grant unto us, who can neither add to or detract from their exaltation and glory, that we may at their graves find again that inspiration that we shall take up all those things that were precious in their sight and live and learn to do for our nation in life what they did in death. And now, at this time, we commend to Thy care and keeping the sorrowing hearts of those who had to part with that which was precious to them, and have no higher or better satisfaction, joy or delight than to know that from the realms of bliss they can look down upon a land where Thy name is hallowed and Thy will be done, and the people, with one accord, strive to serve Thee in purity of purpose and with sincerity and love. Amen.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 935.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 26, 1919.

To the Honorable, the members of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 935, entitled "An Act to amend section two, article one, of an act approved the eighth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and ninety-nine), entitled 'An Act relative to the Berks County prison and to discharged convicts.' "

This bill amends a local Act of 1848 relating to the Berks County Prison. That Act must fairly be construed as one regulating the affairs of a county, and hence, under a well known line of decisions, cannot be amended, pursuant to the inhibition contained in Section 7, Article III, of the Constitution forbidding local or special laws "regulating the affairs of counties, cities, townships, wards, boroughs or school districts."

WM. C. SPROUL.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. SARIG, seconded by Mr. RAMSEY,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 417.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 26, 1919.

To the Honorable, the Members of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 417, entitled "An Act to further amend section one thousand four hundred twelve, in article fourteen of an act approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine), entitled 'An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, together with the provisions by which it shall be administered, and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue, and repealing all laws, general, special or local, or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith,' as amended."

This bill changes the law relating to the method of collecting the cost of the education of children who are inmates of any orphan asylum. Such children are permitted to attend the schools of the district in which the asylum is located. Under the law as it now stands where there is a charge for the education of such children the same is to be paid to the district in which the asylum is located, and whose schools the children attend by the district of which the pupils are legal residents.

This bill amends the existing law by requiring the county in which such institution is located to pay this charge with recourse to recover the same from "the parties or persons or poor district properly charged therewith."

I am of the opinion that this is wholly unsound in principle. The cost of the education of any such child properly rests upon the school district of which the child is a legal resident. It should not be imposed on any other party. Neither the county nor the poor district should be brought into this. This amendment would transfer to, and place upon them, a burden and a duty which should be left entirely with the proper school district.

WM. C. SPROUL.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. DUNN, seconded by Mr. HEYBURN,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 828.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 27, 1919.

To the Honorable, the Members of the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 828, the purpose of which is to create a four-year term instead of a one-year term, as at present, for the secretary of school boards in districts of the second and third class.

I can see no reason why this change in the law should be made.

WM. C. SPROUL.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. ALBERT E. CURRY, seconded by Mr. COLVILLE,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

CALLING UP BILLS OUT OF ORDER.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to call up House Bill No. 85, bills on third reading, page 18 of today's calendar, for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I object; and, Mr. Speaker, on a question of personal privilege I desire to say that at this time in the session it is a very bad precedent to establish to call out of order these bills on third reading, and that is the only reason that I object to it. I think it is a bad precedent just now because every man wants to have his bill given preference on the calendar and that is the way in which it is done, and so I object now not because I am opposed to any particular gentleman or piece of legislation; but unless it is very important, such as a revenue measure or appropriation bill, it seems to me that bills ought not to be called up out of order and therefore take precedence on the next calendar over all other bills.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. Speaker, I wish to say that I had no desire whatever to give this bill preference on the calendar. I assumed that I was perfectly in order in doing this and if not, I withdraw my request.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to state that the gentleman from Delaware is entirely correct in his explanation. Whether or not the gentleman from Venango (Mr. MALLERY) desires to have his bill take preference over other bills on the calendar, it does, however, take preference when called up out of order

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1642.

Mr. ALEXANDER offered a motion, which was read by the Clerk as follows:

Moved by Mr. ALEXANDER, seconded by Mr. DAVID I. MILLER, that the vote by which House Bill No. 1642, file folio 5101, entitled

An Act to safeguard human life and health throughout the Commonwealth by providing for the reporting quarantining and control of diseases declared communicable by this act and by regulation of the Department of Health providing for the prevention of infection therefrom and prescribing penalties on page 4 of the calendar of Tuesday, May 27, 1919, was defeated on final passage be reconsidered.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, this bill, you will remember, is the bill which the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Gans) was sponsor for, and which I objected to yesterday on account of the fee therein being "not less than twenty-five cents." This is a Department of Health bill, and the Department asked me this morning if I would move to place this bill back on the calendar for the purpose of having that clause removed. They did not know that that clause was in it, and they do not want it in and therefore they have asked me this morning to make this motion, and I give this explanation therefor so that the House will know the purpose.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. GANS. Mr. Speaker, I move to recommit this bill to the Committee on Public Health and Sanitation for the purpose of amendment.

The SPEAKER. The next bill on the calendar is House Bill No. 1066. The Clerk will read the bill.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, House Bill No. 1066 is not on the files.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Cox) object to the reading of the bill the first time?

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, it is up to the Chair to decide whether or not it is legal to pass a bill that is not on the files.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will inform the gentleman that we are not legally passing the bill. We are merely passing it on one stage of proceedure.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I think that where a bill is on first reading there should not be any question as to the legality of its passing. There should be no question as to the passing of a bill at any stage.

The SPEAKER. If the gentleman objects, the bill will not be read for the first time now.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The next bill on the calendar is House Bill No. 610. The Clerk will read the bill.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would state that the motion is not in proper form, and would request the members to be a little more particular in regard to the form of motions so that when they come to the desk they will be proper records for the Journal Clerk. Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of information.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know how the gentleman who makes this motion voted on the bill.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Franklin (Mr. Benchoff) vote?

Mr. BENCHOFF. Mr. Speaker, I voted "no."

Mr. MAGILL. Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to be recorded as seconding this motion.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I hope the House will vote down this motion. This is a bill that we defeated on final passage. It provides for the creation of a Bureau of Nursing in school districts of the first and second class. When this bill was up for final passage it only received fifty-five votes, and I hope that you will vote it down because it only means an additional expense to the school districts at a time when we need all our money to educate the people who are now only going to school half time.

The SPEAKER. The motion of the gentleman from Franklin (Mr. Benchoff) has not been seconded, therefore, the motion is not before the House.

Mr. NEARY. Mr. Speaker, I will second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman vote?

Mr. NEARY. Mr. Speaker, I voted against the bill.

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman sure?

Mr. NEARY. Mr. Speaker, I am pretty sure. If you will look it up I think you will find the record shows that I voted against the bill.

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

MOTION TO ADJOURN.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until next Monday evening at 9:00 o'clock.

The motion was not agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, this Legislature has been in session almost five months. We have practically marked time. The amount of constructive legislation that this session has passed is not very great. We have passed a great number of bills of minor importance, and I understand that the passage of each bill means a cost to this State of three hundred and twenty-five dollars. Those are the figures that were given to me by men who should know, and if you desire to know from whom I got that information I will tell you. We have been patiently awaiting a programme of legislation for this assembly. We have not been informed what is still to come. We have no intimation as to when this Legislature is going to adjourn. We have had rumors for a month, but that is all we have. If I recollect rightly, the Governor, in his inaugural address, recommended that we have a short session. I am positive of the fact that when the Speaker made his address at the opening session, he recommended that we have a short session. I have spoken to quite a few of the members of this House concerning the way that the business is being prolonged. That is no reflection upon you, Mr. Speaker, because we realize that you are trying to expedite the business of this House. Time and time again you have so expressed it from the desk, but we feel it is time to co-operate with you and uphold your hand to see that the business of this House is discharged, despatched, and then we can adjourn sine die. Now, if the administration or the leaders or whoever they might be, have any programme of legislation that they desire this Legislature to put through, it appeals to me that it is high time, at this present day, that this legislation be brought forth. As I understand, the Senate has not yet concurred in any resolution as to the time when this Legislature shall adjourn. We know no more now when we will adjourn than we did when we opened up the session. I feel, Mr. Speaker, that unless somebody takes the bit in his teeth and expresses the dissatisfaction of this Assembly, that this session will be prolonged throughout the summer and into the winter. I believe that everyone of us is willing to work,—possibly some are not, but it appeals to me that they should either put their legislation in other hands or get it out on the calendar so that we may pass the things that are absolutely necessary and cut out this rag-time legislation that has been introduced. I say, men, it is time to get down to business and stop wasting the money of the State. Let us enact the legislation that this State needs, and then adjourn and let us do it as promptly as possible.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: I am a long way from home; I have a considerable time ago exhausted my bounteous allowance of mileage; but, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen, I want to say to the members of this House, and to you, Mr. Speaker, that I have sat very faithfully at my desk during this session, and I am going to stay here, sir, until this House adjourns, and give the business of this House my attention for whatever it may be worth. I believe, gentlemen of the House, that it is about time the Senate across the way take the members of this House into their confidence and let us know what they propose to do. I have nothing but regard, Mr. Speaker, for these hard-working gentlemen back of the desk and in the Speaker's chair, and only have commendation for them. Gentlemen of this House, we are being laughed at by the citizens of this Commonwealth, because we won't attend to business. I am afraid this House is being looked upon by a lot of very good citizens of this Commonwealth in the spirit of a joke. Now I am sure we are going to attend to business next week ,attend to the business of this House, and dispatch that business promptly. I would not for a moment, gentlemen, advocate a spirit of reprisal on the gentlemen who act across at the other end of the hall, unless it was absolutely necessary as the last resort; but I think we should give them to understand that we are here for business, that we believe we are entitled to their confidence, and that they should give it to us; and I believe they will. This House has been dominated during this session by a spirit of fairness. I have fallen in love with most of the members of this House during this session, because of that spirit of fairness, that disposition to give every man a chance, and to give all of his legislation an honest hearing; but I believe, gentlemen of the House, that the time is fast approaching when the chairmen of the several committees of this House ought to take into their confidence the membership of this House. There is a time coming very soon in this session when appropriation bills will have the right of way, and other things must take a back seat; there is a time coming just a little later on when Senate bills will have the right of way, and other things will have to stand back for that. We have implicit confidence in the Appropriation Committee and believe that they are going to take care of all of us, as they should; but we believe that the time is fast approaching when the Appropriation Committee ought to take the members of this House into their confidence and place upon our calendar the appropriation bills that we must act upon before we adjourn sine die. Gentlemen of this House, all we want as members of this House, all we expect, and all we demand, is that we may receive just consideration for our appropriations and a just division of the money that is to be handed out in this Commonwealth for charitable institutions and other institutions that demand attention from the State at large; and I know we are going to get that. Now let us get down to business; let us finish up our business. If anybody, or any city, or any county has a large matter of legislation to be considered by this House, the day has arrived and the time is ripe for that legislation to be brought before this House, and to be considered by this House, in order that we may finish and get done with the matters that we ought and are going to consider. I do not wish to be considered as criticizing anybody. I am criticizing myself and the members of this House because of our dilatory tactics during this session. We have brought upon ourselves ridicule from one end of this State to the other because we have refused to work. We are going to change that and get down to business next week. I am informed and believe now that when we come here next week we are going to get down to business. Gentlemen, then we will be entitled to the confidence of the Senate and of the committees of this House. We should put all our cards on the table and attend to the business of this House in the open and on the square, and get through and quit. Then we will regain some of the lost time, and this House will adjourn with a better impression upon the people of this State than exists at this time, which, in my humble judgment, is not very good. Mr. Speaker, I thank you.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: Previous to the convening of this session in January of this year, we were informed through the press, we were informed by the Governor-elect of this great Commonwealth, we were informed by the senior Senator of this great Commonwealth and others, that this session was going to be an exceedingly short business session. This is the fourth time I have had the honor to come to the legislature, elected by the people of my district; and I regret to say that this session has done less work and has done more lying around, more delaying of time since we came here to perform the work for this great Commonwealth, that any session I have previously attended. If we had done the work and not spent the time in delay and lying around, we would have completed the work and been out of here by the middle of April or the first of May. All the members who come to this House are not professional men, are not wealthy men; they come here and sacrifice their business at home; they come here and sacrifice their all at home; they come here and devote their time to the interests of their people. Each day of delay in our legislative work brings an increased expense on those unfortunate members who have been honored by their districts to come here and represent them; it brings additional expense which should have been stopped long ago; and it is unfortunate that this additional expense has been imposed upon them; because we should have been out of here by the middle of April or the first of May. Every man should have been home attending to his business, or his profession, or to his work, instead of having this annoyance and additional expense of coming here. As I said, I have attended these legislative sessions for four terms, and Monday night was the first time I was away from this House, the only time I have lost in four sessions; and I came here Tuesday morning expecting to hear some news of how long we were going to stay. There are rumors that the session will reach June 26th, and probably later; if we do not get action from the Senate, it will reach into July. We ought to get some program from somebody in this House or somebody in the Senate of the work we are to do as soon as possible, in order to save additional expense to those who cannot afford it.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, it is not my intention to prolong this feast of oratory, but it strikes me that not one member of this House who has ever served in the sessions recently, in the General Assembly, imagined when he was elected in November of last year that the session of this General Assembly would close earlier than the middle of May. I had no idea that it would, though it was the impression of the press, the impression, perhaps, of the Governor and the impression of the leaders of the political parties of Pennsylvania that the General Assembly of this session would close earlier than the middle of May. There was considerable legislation that has been transacted, though it has not appeared to everyone——

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, there is nothing before this body, and the gentleman has not asked as a question of personal privilege to address this assembly.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's point of order is well taken, but in view of the fact that the gentlemen of this House desire to discuss this question, and perhaps the whole House is interested, the Chair has placed a liberal construction upon the proceedings and presupposes and presumes that the members of the House, before they had risen to speak, had obtained the right to speak on a question of personal privilege relating to the General Assembly. Therefore, the Chair will ask the gentleman from Delaware to proceed.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I was saying that we knew it and the State at large knew that legislation of great importance would be brought before this General Assembly. It was not possible for any of us to conceive of adjournment earlier than the middle of May. The Committee on Rules of this House, as we reported last week, about the time when we felt adjournment should be close at hand, went into the subject as thoroughly as we could, considering legislation still pending and advised that the adjournment date be fixed for June 19th. I know the Senate has not concurred, but I am not going to apologize for the Senate's actions. I do not believe that this House is far behind in its work. At this time I don't think that there is very much important legislation still to be considered with the exception of the appropriation bills, and they could all have been gotten out, under favorable circumstances, by the time specified. I feel certain that the time will not be longer than the 26th of June, and that is what we have had in the last few sessions of the General Assembly, and, therefore, I don't believe that just criticism can be placed upon us in the House for loafing. We have acted upon whatever legislation has been handed to us each week, although we have adjourned as early as Wednesday afternoon as a general thing, the calendar of the House has never been left so that it could not be finished in the next week. I believe still that the adjournment date will be the 19th of June, and that this House and the Senate will have completed all of the legislation that is now pending before that time; and with the procedure that this House has laid before it for next week, there is no doubt in my mind that by Thursday at noon every piece of legislation upon the calendar shall have been disposed of in that time and so on each week until the day of adjournment. I still say, Mr. Speaker, after taking this matter up with people concerned, that this General Assembly will adjourn sine die on the 19th day of June. I feel pretty certain that the chairman of the Appropriation Committee feels that it is possible to do that and I am sure that as we have finished our work each week, and though the work becomes greater in the next two weeks, that this House will then have completed its program.

It has come to our notice that since the resolution was adopted, one of our former members, the Hon. George Hibshman, of Lancaster County, has passed away. We now have information showing the death of members in Philadelphia, Luzerne, Lebanon, Lehigh and Lancaster, and it may be that there are some from other counties of which we have no information at the present time. Therefore, the Committee requests that the Representatives from the different counties will inform the Committee whether any of their members have died since the last session, in order that the memorial services on next Tuesday evening will include all members who have passed away. As you no doubt remember, the Committee consists of Mr. Richard Powell, of Luzerne County, Mr. Simpson, of Allegheny County, and Mr. James A. Walker, of Philadelphia.

RESOLUTION REQUESTING CONGRESS TO INVESTIGATE TREATMENT OF NATIONAL GUARD OFFICERS.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution reported from the Committee on Military Affairs at last Wednesday's session.

Mr. SMITH. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The resolution was read as follows:

Whereas certain Officers who have had long and honorable military careers in the service of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, and have served with distinction on the Mexican Border in the United States Service, and

Whereas, many of these officers, during their service in the National Guard, had been trained at numerous schools and encampments, and having become a part of the Twenty-eighth Division during the ten months of its training at Camp Hancock, were further trained in their duties and many of them graduated from Machine Gun, Infantry and Artillery School at Camp Hancock, Fort Sill and other places, and

Whereas, these officers performed their duties with efficiency, and displayed both zeal and valor on the various battlefields in France, and

Whereas, many of these officers were relieved from their commands about the time that it became evident that a cessation of hostilities was about to take place, and Regular Army Officers who had not taken part in the actual service during hostilities, were assigned to take their places, and

Whereas many of these National Guard Officers were relieved from their commands without cause, and in an unjust and arbitrary manner, and

Whereas in some cases the reason given for such removals were totally unfounded and unsupported by evidence, and the officers relieved were not accorded the opportunity of con-

tradicting the statements, or to vindicate themselves, or to have such impartial consideration as is required by the principles of justice, and

Whereas the exercise of the arbitrary power of Commanding Officers who were of the Regular Army, was invariably directed against the former National Guardsmen to such an extent that there appears to have been a definite plan and design to discredit the National Guard,

Therefore, be it resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the United States Congress be requested to make such investigation of the whole subject as shall seem necessary and proper, and if it shall appear that the said Officers have been treated unfairly, that proper recognition and vindication be given them, and that suitable reprimand or other punishment be given those guilty of such unjust treatment, and that proper and adequate laws be enacted to prevent the recurrence of such injustice in the future.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

RESOLUTION CONDEMNING THE ATROCITIES PERPETRATED AGAINST THE JEWISH POPULATION OF POLAND.

Mr. SALUS offered the following resolution, which was twice read:

Whereas, A series of massacres, pogroms and outrages unparalleled in the history of civilization for savagery and brutality have occurred in more than 120 towns and villages in Poland and Ukraine in which innocent men, women and children of the Jewish faith were mercilessly tortured, killed and burned alive; thousands wounded, women and children ravaged, homes destroyed and synagogues with their worshippers burned down, and,

Whereas, It is reported that these outrages were countenanced by representatives of the Polish government, and,

Whereas, The people of these great United States have always condemned discrimination against peoples by reason of race, color and religion, and,

Whereas, This great Republic has entered into the World War for the purpose of making the world a safe place to live in and permit and make possible for the smaller nationalities to enjoy the blessings of democratic rule, and,

Whereas, American justice and fair play demands that Poland which was greeted with the hearty approval of the Jewish people upon her birth as a free nation through the efforts of America, should not deny to the Polish Jews those claims to fundamental human rights for which for many centuries she strove.

Now, therefore be it resolved, By the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (if the House of Representatives concur), That we condemn these unspeakable horrors and brutal outrages and atrocities perpetrated against a people who gave their life's blood on the fields of battle that freedom and equality may prevail throughout the world, and,

Be it further resolved, That the Secretary of the Commonwealth forward a copy of these resolutions to the Congress of the United States and to the President of the United States.

RESOLUTION CONDEMNING THE MASSACRES OF THE JEWISH PEOPLE IN POLAND.

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 2, 1919.

Whereas, a series of massacres, pograms and outrages unparalleled in the history of civilization for savagery and brutality have occurred in more than 120 towns and villages in Poland Ukraine in which innocent men, women and children of the Jewish faith were mercilessly tortured, killed and burned alive; thousands wounded, women and children ravaged, homes destroyed and synagogues with their worshipers burned down, and

Whereas, it is reported that these outrages were countenanced by representatives of the Polish government, and

Whereas, the people of these great United States have always condemned discrimination against people by reason of race, color and religion, and

Whereas, this great Republic has entered into the World War for the purpose of making the world a safe place to live in and permit and make possible for the smaller nationalities to enjoy the blessings of democratic rule, and

Whereas, American justice and fair play demands that Poland which was greeted with the hearty approval of the Jewish people upon her birth as a free nation through the efforts of America, should not deny to the Polish Jews those claims to fundamental human rights for which for many centuries she strove,

Now Therefore, Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (if the Senate concur) that we condemn these unspeakable horrors and brutal outrages and atrocities perpetrated against the people who gave their life's blood on the fields of battle that freedom and equality may prevail throughout the world, and

Be it further resolved, that the Secretary of the Commonwealth forward a copy of these resolutions to the Congress of the United States and to the President of the United States.

Lead kindly light in this dark world of sin and error, where men are submerged in their bitterness and bigotry, and hearts are torn, lands devastated, homes destroyed and the useless slaughter of men taking place by hundreds, by thousands, by tens of thousands; and Thou who delightest to do mercy rather than justice, Thou who dost find Thy glory and triumph in forgiveness, in blessing and in helpfulness, grant, we pray Thee, that Thou wilt make Thy strong arm felt in this dark hour when over the fields of Europe there is being again performed the butchery and the savagery that is hurling back nations a thousand years. Grant that whatever this nation, speaking in loud, clear and trumpet tones, can do to change the fearful conditions where the pogroms are being now carried out with such brutality, grant that our land and people may speak, speak out of full hearts, speak out of broad charity, speak out of their Christian love, that these nameless horrors may cease, and that we honor ourselves, as well as Thee, by offering a protest unto the world against such conduct. Amen.

Mr. GLASS asked and obtained unanimous consent for the immediate consideration of the following resolution:

In the House of Representatives, June 2, 1919.

Whereas, A series of massacres, pogroms and outrages unparalleled in the history of civilization for savagery and brutality have occurred in more than 120 towns and villages in Poland and Ukraine in which innocent men, women and children of the Jewish faith were mercilessly tortured, killed and burned alive, thousands wounded, women and children ravaged, homes destroyed and synagogues with their worshippers burned down; and

Whereas, It is reported that these outrages were countenanced by representatives of the Polish government; and

Whereas, The people of these great United States have always condemned discrimination against peoples by reason of race, color and religion; and

Whereas, This great Republic has entered into the World War for the purpose of making the world a safe place to live in and permit and make possible for the smaller nationalities to enjoy the blessings of democratic rule; and

Whereas, American justice and fair play demands that Poland which was greeted with the hearty approval of the Jewish people upon her birth as a free nation through the efforts of America, should not deny to the Polish Jews those claims to fundamental human rights for which for many centuries she strove; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (if the Senate concur), That we condemn these unspeakable horrors and brutal outrages and atrocities perpetrated against a people who gave their life's blood on the fields of battle that freedom and equality may prevail throughout the world; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Commonwealth forward a copy of these resolutions to the Congress of the United States and to the President of the United States.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1493 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. GOEHRING offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, June 2, 1919.

Resolved (If the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 1493, entitled "An Act amending article six of an act entitled 'An Act for the government of cities of the second class,' approved the seventh day of March, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one as amended by an act entitled "An Act amending artiele six of an act entitled 'An Act for the government of cities of the second class' approved the seventh day of March, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one, as amended by an amendatory act approved the first day of April, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and nine, and as affected by an act entitled 'An Act providing a uniform rate of assessment and taxation for all real estate in cities of the second class,' approved the eleventh day of May, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven, by providing for the classification of real estate for purpose of taxation into two classes, to-wit, the buildings on land and the land exclusive of buildings, and by providing for the assessment of a less tax upon the buildings than upon the land exclusive of the buildings in cities of the second class," approved the fifteenth day of May, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and thirteen, fixing the number of assessors and relating to their salaries, be recalled from the Governor for purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION REQUESTING THE PEACE CONFERENCE TO INVESTIGATE THE MASSACRE OF THE JEWISH POPULATION IN POLAND.

Mr. GOLDER asked and obtained unanimous consent for the immediate consideration for the following resolution:

In the House of Representatives, June 2, 1919.

Whereas, Charges have been made in the public press of massacres of the Jewish population in Poland; and

Whereas, The Peace Confreence now in session at Paris has recognized the newly created government of Poland; and

Whereas, The massacre of peoples, regardless of race or nationality, is contrary to the principles for which the government of the United States and the allied nations struggled in the world war just ended; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania does hereby respectfully petition and address the delegates of the United States and of the allied powers assembled at the Peace Conference at Paris to make an immediate investigation of the charges of the massacre of the Jewish population in Poland.

Resolved, That a copy of the resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to the delegates of the United States at Paris for consideration by the Peace Conference.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 11.

Mr. RINGLER asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up at this time Concurrent Resolution No. 11, file folio 5205.

The SPEAKER. The resolution will be read by the Clerk.

The resolution was read by the Clerk as follows:

Whereas, The President, in his message to Congress of the United States, urged the repeal of the Act of Congress prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors after July first, one thousand nine hundred nineteen; and,

Whereas, Said law was passed as a war measure for the conservation of food and not as a prohibitory measure; therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully request Congress of the United States to repeal the act of Congress which prohibits the sale of intoxicating liquors after July first, one thousand nine hundred nineteen.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Commonwealth forward a copy of this Resolution to the Senators and Members of the House of Representatives in the Congress of the United States from Pennsylvania.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: This is a resolution that I believe has no business to come before this General Assembly. I do not know why we should hunt trouble when we have plenty of our own. The people of this State have sent men down to Washington to transact our business for us, and the subject-matter of this resolution is wholly a matter for Congress, and it is not for this General Assembly. We do not know the conditions that exist. I doubt if there are any men in this House who know to what stage demobilization has taken place at this time. I doubt if there is any member in this House who knows just what the Act of Congress is regarding this matter. Now are we going to assume to either recommend, or advise or dictate to our members in Congress what they should do, when we as members of this House do not know anything about the subject-matter? We are not familiar with this Act of Congress; neither are we familiar with the progress made in the demobilization of our army; and yet we would assume to say to our Congressmen that they should do this, or that they should do that. Gentlemen, this is a resolution that has no business before this General Assembly. The subject of this resolution is not for us, but it is for Congress; and I would ask the members of this House to vote down this resolution.

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to reply to the gentleman from Lawrence (Mr. Robert L. Wallace), and wish to state that this resolution, in my opinion, is entirely proper. This evening, by unanimous vote, we just gave our opinion on a problem across the sea, and in this session of the House we have given Congress all sorts of friendly advise; and the gentleman from Lawrence (Mr. Robert L. Wallace) has never dissented. This resolution should properly come before this body. We have a right to say what our views are on this subject. The time is getting very short, the first of July is only twenty-seven or twenty-eight days off, and so far as the demobilization of the army is concerned, if the War Department is to be believed, they have upward of a million and a quarter men on these shores, and expect to have the balance over before the first of August. Now, why can't we dispense with camouflage and vote for or against this resolution? I see no reason for this resolution, personally. I will take my stand when the roll is called.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The SPEAKER declared the "ayes" appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. VICKERMAN and Mr. McVICAR, and were taken.

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I second the call.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1049 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. PIKE offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, June 2, 1919.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON HOUSE BILL NO. 1474.

Mr. HOLLINGSWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1474, file folio 4911, was defeated, be reconsidered.

Mr. BUNGARD. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the title of the bill.

The Clerk read the title as follows:

An Act creating in counties having a population of from eight hundred thousand to one million five hundred thousand a board for the assessment and revision of taxes providing for the appointment of the members of such board by the county commissioners fixing their salaries payable by the county defining the powers and duties of such board and regulating the assessment of property and occupations for state and county purposes authorizing the appointment of subordinate assessors and clerks defining their duties and providing for their compensation payable by such counties imposing a penalty on subordinate assessors for failure to comply with certain provisions of this act and abolishing the office of ward borough and township assessor insofar as respects the assessment of property and occupations for State and county purposes

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: This bill was defeated last Tuesday morning by a large vote in this House. Since we went back home from last week, we found nobody in Allegheny County who wanted this bill passed except the men who were here last Tuesday. Every Pittsburgh paper since that time has come out entirely and commended the men who voted against this bill. The facts are these: This is another one of those jobs for Allegheny County. We have been here this entire session making jobs for the taxpayers of Allegheny County to pay, and we find nobody who has taken an interest in this bill except those who want jobs for themselves or for their friends. We now have a tax revision board, doing splendid work. The work that has been done has been efficient and has produced results, and now the object is that those who have been doing this work for four years can do that — and there is nobody that wants this excepting those who want to make four new jobs at $5,000 apiece a year salary which will make $20,000 more on the people of Allegheny in the way of additional taxation. I think it is high time to quit making jobs. We will go down in history as the worst session we have had in twenty-five years. We are continually making more jobs for the people to pay and I think that this bill should be defeated. This bill was defeated last Tuesday and I hope that the members of this House will vote it down.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: It was only last Tuesday when I asked each and every man in this House to vote this bill down, as has already been explained to you, this is a bill which will increase the county taxes of Allegheny County $20,000 a year. Since this bill has been defeated every newspaper in the city of Pittsburgh has placed its condemnation on the members of this House, and have asked them to get down to progressive legislation and vote down jobs that are merely created for the purpose of building a political machine. If this bill is called up after the hopeless defeat of last Tuesday, I hope that every member will not now permit this bill to be jammed down his throat. There is no occasion for this bill in Allegheny County. The present commissioners have not asked for it. There is no sentiment for this bill in Allegheny County and it is simply a bill to create a multiplication of jobs. I ask each and every member to vote this bill down, those who so generously considered this bill last Tuesday and that they again vote it down for the reason that there is no demand for it. It is merely a political measure.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: I had no intention of getting up on the floor for the purpose of defending this bill on this occasion to reconsider it, but I feel that it is my duty to at least defend myself. I don't feel that the attack made upon me by the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Vickerman) is just. I am neither a political machine or part of a political machine; I do not pose as such. I don't want one of these jobs and have no friend that is seeking one of them. This bill is intended solely for the purpose of giving Allegheny County that which she desires; that which she wants and that which she should have, in order that the assessments of Allegheny County might be made just and equitable and according to law. This is the only thing that I ask from the members of the House. It affects Allegheny County in that it appoints four men that may be paid according to law. We have them now, as I explained last week. These men appointed and act under a name known as extraordinary assessors who are paid by warrant. We have the same system that this bill provides for. We have the same people appointing them that have already appointed this board. The very man who has appointed the three members will appoint the entire seven members, and I don't care whether it is the present county commissioners or the future county commissioners. I am not here for the purpose of representing the county commissioners of Allegheny County, but for the purpose of representing the people of Allegheny County, in order that we may know their men are paid and that is the only thing that this bill provides for. It simply places four men that are now already on the payroll and who are being paid by warrant, on the regular payroll as legitimate assessors known as the board for the assessment and revision of taxes in Allegheny County, and the very people that Mr. Marcus represents in this House are the people we have asked in this bill shall appoint the men that will be appointed under this act. The present board of county commissioners are those people and they are the men that appoint the present board, and there is nothing in the bill with reference to creating positions. There is nothing in the bill for the purpose of robbing the taxpayers; there is nothing in the bill for the purpose of robbing somebody or of ripping somebody out of office; the system is not changed one iota. The bill simply increases the board in order that they may make the assessments just and equitable and that is what the people of Allegheny Count want. I ask you to reconsider the vote by which this bill was defeated and I want to say in order that I may correct my good friend from Allegheny (Mr. Vickerman), that he is mistaken when he says that the House defeated this bill by an overwhelming majority. He was mistaken about that. There were 147 men in this House and eighty-seven of them voted in favor of the passage of this bill. Every man from Allegheny County, with the exception of four, voted for it, so that the sentiment in Allegheny County must be overwhelmingly in favor of the bill.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Simpson.)

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Simpson) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SIMPSON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Martin) will proceed.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Simpson) whether I understood him correctly to say that the people of Allegheny County want this bill passed?

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I would say so, judging from the number of Representatives from that county voting in favor of it as compared with the number of them voting against it.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman by what representation, other than they, he makes his assertion?

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I would say that for the purpose of making the assessment in an equitable and legal manner, considering that three members of the board now employ for extra assessors known as extraordinary assessors and pay them by county warrants instead of having them on the regular payroll, and making the same number that I propose to have in the bill, so that the people of Allegheny County know exactly what assessors they are up against

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman to kindly explain to the members of this House just where in Allegheny County he finds a sentiment in favor of this bill.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, judging from the representation, I would say that in twenty-four of the districts in Allegheny County this sentiment prevails.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if there is a single newspaper that supports this legislation.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, indeed, I could not tell you whether or not a single newspaper is supporting this legislation or not, but whether they are or not, if the people are supporting it they are the people that I am looking after and not the newspapers.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether any civic organization, chamber of commerce, or any other organization in the city of Pittsburgh passed a resolution favoring this legislation.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I do not know whether they have passed a resolution either in favor or against it.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, this bill ought to be voted down. The people of Allegheny County do not want it.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Simpson).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Simpson) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SIMPSON. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Simpson) whether the present Board of Assessment and Tax Revision, which now consists of three members, has asked that the Board be increased from three to seven members.

Mr. SIMPSON. Well, Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman mean whether they have asked me or whether they have asked this House?

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I mean, have they asked this House.

Mr. SIMPSON. Well, Mr. Speaker, I don't believe the House is governed by three members appointed by the County Commissioners of Allegheny County. I would sincerely hope that they were not.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, what I want to know is, have the County Commissioners of Allegheny County, the appointing power, asked this House to increase the number from three to seven?

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, considering that this House is a legislative body and govern themselves accordingly, I would say that it would be an insult to this House to have an outsider step in here and ask this House to pass a bill or defeat a bill for their special benefit.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman, has either the Republican or the Democratic organizations of Allegheny County asked that this bill be passed.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, Democratic party in Allegheny County is such a minority affair that you would scarcely expect it to go to work and pass a resolution to that effect. The Republican organization in Allegheny County, as I understand, champions this bill because they figure that it is absolutely just, equitable and reasonable that the people should know how their money is being expended.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if the Republican organization has taken any action whatever on this bill.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I understand they have.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I would like the gentleman to state when and where that action was taken.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, numerous, divers and sundry times.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I would like to sak the gentleman if the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, or any other chamber of commerce or civic organization in Allegheny County has passed a resolution in favor of this bill?

Mr. SIMPSON. Well, Mr. Speaker, as I am not a resident of the city of Pittsburgh, but being a resident of one of the rural districts and anxious that the assessments should be equitable, they did not consult me, I am sure.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman does not know then?

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I do not.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman, what are the duties of the present Board of Assessment and Tax Revision as provided for in the Act of 1911?

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, as provided for in the Act of 1911, they are principally that which is provided for in the present act. As they constitute themselves, they sit there for the sole and express purpose of passing on appeals and drawing their salaries, and I make the job now that they will have to divide the county into seven districts and go out and earn ther salaries by becoming familiar with the different localities.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, that is all I wish to ask the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Simpson).

Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: In the year 1911 the Legislature passed an act providing for a board of three presons to be known as the Board of Assessment and Tax Revision for the County of Allegheny, not naming the county by name, but naming it by the designation of population, and it fixed the salary of each of the members at five thousand dollars per annum. It prescribed the duties of the board. This act which is now before this House for reconsideration is practically a re-enactment of the Act of 1911 except that it makes the number of members of the board seven instead of three and the net result is that the county of Allegheny will have to pay twenty thousand dollars more per annum for the performance of the same duties. The duties of the Board of Assessment and Tax Revision, as prescribed in the Act of 1911 and this bill, are the same and, consequently, this argument that by this new act it will dispense with four expert assessors is not in accordance with the language of anything that is in this bill; and if you pass on this measure you are simply saying to the people of that county, "We are going to give you four more assessors and you are going to pay twenty thousand dollars more." Now, what is the necessity for this legislation? The Board of Assessment and Tax Revision of that county has not asked for it; the County Commissioners of Allegheny County have not asked for it; no political party in Allegheny County has asked for it; no civic organization in Allegheny County has asked for it. The three members that constitute this Board do not, as a fact, make the assessments. They appoint assessors in every district within the county and all that they do is to hear appeals and supervise the assessments. The assessments are largely made every three years, consequently, there are two years out of the three in which these gentlemen have very little to do. I say, gentlemen, as has been said by previous speakers, this is simply a proposition of creating four more offices and in my opinion it should be voted down.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. McVicar).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. McVicar) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SIMPSON. Do you know what the assessment of Allegheny County is, in round numbers?

Mr. McVICAR. I do not.

Mr. SIMPSON. If I were to tell you that it was one billion two hundred and eighty-five million dollars, would you say that was not correct?

Mr. McVICAR. If you say it is so, I would say you were telling the truth.

Mr. SIMPSON. Do you know whether or not the board for the assessment and Revision of Taxes, in connection with the Commissioners of Allegheny County, have now on their pay roll four expert assessors?

Mr. McVICAR. I understand that is the case. I understand it is also the fact that they have on the pay roll assessors for every district within the county, that they have expert assessors to assess the buildings and structures, and they hire such experts, and they are doing it under the authority of the Act of 1911, and they will have the same power under this bill of yours, if it is enacted into law.

Mr. SIMPSON. Do you know how they pay these expert asssesors that you just spoke about?

Mr. McVICAR. From the funds of the County of Allegheny.

Mr. SIMPSON. Do you know whether or not they are carried on the pay roll?

Mr. McVICAR. I think that is immaterial—

Mr. SIMPSON. Do you know how they are carried on the pay roll?

Mr. McVICAR. No, I have not examined the bookkeeping end.

Mr. SIMPSON. If I were to tell you that they were not carried on the pay roll of the assessors, but that they were paid by a warrant, would you say that was not correct?

Mr. McVICAR. I would not deny anything that you say is a fact.

Mr. SIMPSON. Then if I make that statement as a fact, would you concede it as a fact?

Mr. McVICAR. I would accept it as the truth.

Mr. SIMPSON. Well, that is a fact. Now if I were to tell you that these four men, that they are now juggling in this way, and paying them by warrant, would be placed, by this bill, on the pay roll, so that the people will know just what they are paying for, would you say that was a good or bad system?

Mr. McVICAR. I would say this: If the present Board is juggling the pay rolls at the present time, under the powers of your bill it could be juggled [illegible] the same. There is nothing in this present bill that would prevent the juggling of the pay roll if enacted into law, and the only effect would be to make Allegheny County pay twenty thousand dollars a year more.

Mr. SIMPSON. Would you say it was a good system or a bad system?

Mr. McVICAR. I would say this system is bad if the pay roll can be juggled——

Mr. SIMPSON. And so any remedial measure that would be passed would be a good thing?

Mr. McVICAR. It would be, but this bill of yours would not remedy it.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Simpson).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Simpson) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SIMPSON. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Simpson), whether the vote of the delegation of Allegheny County showed or represented the sentiment of the people in Allegheny County?

Mr. SIMPSON. Yes sir, it does.

Mr. DUNN. Notwithstanding the fact that all the newspapers of Allegheny County were against it?

Mr. SIMPSON. The newspapers of Allegheny County are usually against any good measure.

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, if I may be permitted, I would like to answer the question of the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Dunn). I think Mr. Simpson is entirely wrong when he says that the eighteen members who voted for this measure represented the sentiment of the entire county. There is a tremendous sentiment in Allegheny County against the passage of this bill, and he knows it.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I did not make any such statement, and I wish my friend to understand that. I said that twenty of the members of Allegheny County, representing the different districts of Allegheny County, voted in favor of this measure, and they represented the majority of the people living in Allegheny County. That is what I said.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. MARCUS and Mr. VICKERMAN and were taken.

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the roll be verified.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, June 2, 1919.

Whereas, a series of massacres, pogroms and outrages unparalleled in the history of civilization for savagery and brutality have occurred in more than 120 towns and villages in Poland and Ukraine in which innocent men, women and children of the Jewish faith were mercilessly tortured, killed and burned alive, thousands wounded, women and children ravaged, homes destroyed and synagogues with their worshipers burned down; and

Whereas, It is reported that these outrages were countenanced by representatives of the Polish Government; and

Whereas, The people of the great United States have always condemned discrimination against peoples by reason of race, color and religion; and

Whereas, This great Republic has entered the World War for the purpose of making the world a safe place to live in and permit and make possible for the smaller nationalities to enjoy the blessings of democratic rule; and

Whereas, American justice and fair play demands that Poland which was greeted with hearty approval of the Jewish people upon her birth as a free nation through the efforts of America, should not deny to the Polish Jews those claims to fundamental human rights for which for many centuries she strove; now therefore be it resolved, by the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (if the House of Representatives concur), That we condemn these unspeakable horrors and brutal outrages and atrocities perpetrated against people who gave their life's blood on the fields of battle that freedom and equality may prevail throughout the world; and be it further resolved, That the Secretary of the Commonwealth forward a copy of these resolutions to the Congress of the United States and to the President of the United States.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution?

SENATE MESSAGE.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, May 27, 1919.

Whereas, Certain officers who have had long and honorable military careers in the service of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, and have served with distinction on the Mexican Border in the United States service, and

Whereas, Many of these officers, during their service in the National Guard, had been trained at numerous schools and encampments, and having become a part of the Twenty-eighth Division during the ten months of its training at Camp Hancock, were further trained in their duties and many of them graduated from Machine Gun, Infantry and Artillery Schools at Camp Hancock, Fort Sill and other places; and

Whereas, These officers performed their duties with efficiency, and displayed both zeal and valor on the various battlefields in France; and

Whereas, Many of these officers were relieved from their commands about the time that it became evident that a cessation of hostilities was about to take place, and Regular Army Officers, who had not taken part in the actual service during hostilities were assigned to take their places; and

Whereas, Many of these National Guard Officers were relieved from their commands without cause, and in an unjust and arbitrary manner; and

Whereas, In some cases the resaons given for such removals were totally unfounded and unsupported by evidence, and the officers relieved were not according the opportunity of contradicting the statements, or to vindicate themselves, or to have such impartial consideration as is required by the principles of justice; and

Whereas, The exercise of the arbitrary power of Commanding Officers, who were of the Regular Army, was invariably directed against the former National Guardsmen to such an extent that there appears to have been a definite plan and design to discredit the National Guard; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the United States Congress be requested to make such investigation of the whole subject as shall seem necessary and proper, and, if it shall appear that the said officers have been treated unfairly that proper recognition and vindication be given them, and that suitable reprimand or other punishment be given those guilty of such unjust treatment, and that proper and adequate laws be enacted to prevent the recurrence of such injustice in the future.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, that the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 954.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 29, 1919.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval House Bill No. 954, entitled "An Act to amend section six of the act approved the nineteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws one thousand fifty-five), entitled 'An Act authorizing the release on probation of certain convicts instead of imposing sentences the appointment of probation and parole officers and the payment of their salaries and expenses regulating the manner of sentencing convicts in certain cases and providing for their release on parole their conviction of crime during parole and their rearrest and reconviction for breach of parole and extending the powers and duties of boards of prison inspectors of penitentiaries!"

This bill amends the law relating to minimum and maximum sentences so as to provide that "except in cases of conviction for murder, administering poison, kidnapping, incest, sodemy, buggery, rape, assault and battery with intent to ravish, arson, robbery or burglary" the minimum limit shall never exceed one-third of the maximum sentence prescribed by any court.

By the act of 1909 the Legislature established minimum and maximum sentences and provided that the minimum sentence should not exceed one-fourth of the maximum. This plan of imposing sentences was soon found to be impractical and it was changed by the Act of 1911, which this bill seeks to amend. That act preserved the minimum and maximum sentences by authorizing the court to determine the relation between them. This bill requires the court to sentence to a minimum which shall be one-third of the maximum. The judge who imposes the sentence with relation to the character of the crime can determine better than the Legislature how the minimum sentence should be apportioned.

Under this bill a sentence for conspiracy, no matter how great the fraud, could not exceed eight months; a sentence for bigamy, regardless of the circumstances, could not exceed eight months, and a sentence for larceny, without regard to the value of the property stolen, could not exceed one year.

Moreover, this bill opens the jails to release, without reference to the crimes which they have committed, all convicts who have been sentenced since June 30, 1911, and have served one-third of the maximum sentence imposed upon them.

For these reasons, the bill is not approved.

WM. C. SPROUL.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. JAMES A. WALKER, seconded by Mr. GOLDER,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1218.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 28, 1919.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1218, entitled "An Act to amend an act approved the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine (Pamphlet Laws sixty-four), entitled 'An Act to prevent the deterioration of stock by animals running at large on the public highways of this Commonwealth,' extending the same to animals going beyond or outside the enclosures of their owners and straying upon the lands of others, and to provide for the impounding of strays and for indemnity for damages done by strays."

Inasmuch as the present Act of Assembly provides that no such animal shall be allowed to run upon the highways of the Commonwealth, and the owner of adjoining lands or of any other lands upon which the animal shall stray and do any damage has a right to recover the amount of such damage from the owner, I see no good reason for approving the bill.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

WM. C. SPROUL.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objection of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. COOK, seconded by Mr. BROOKS,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 1389.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 26, 1919.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 1389, entitled "An Act to amend an act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and fifteen entitled 'An Act providing a system of government for boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs' and repealing certain sections of said act."

The law was a codification of the laws relating to boroughs, was carefully drawn and the proposed amendments seem unnecessary. I am of opinion that any change so radically altering the provisions of the Borough Code should await until the boroughs have had a longer opportunity to operate under its present provisions.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

WM. C. SPROUL.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made Mr. McCURDY, seconded by Mr. BROOKS,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives, informing the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate, as follows:

In the Senate, June 2, 1919.

Whereas, A series of massacres, progroms and outrages unparalleled in the history of civilization for savagery and brutality have occurred in more than 120 towns and villages in Poland and Ukraine in which innocent men, women and children of the Jewish faith were mercilessly tortured, killed and burned alive; thousands wounded, women and children ravaged, homes destroyed and synagogues with their worshipers burned down, and

Whereas, It is reported that these outrages were countenanced by representatives of the Polish Government, an

Whereas, the people of the great United States have always condemned discrimination against peoples by reasons of race, color and religion, and

Whereas, This great Republic has entered the World War for the purpose of making the world a safe place to live in and permit and make possible for the smaller nationalities to enjoy the blessings of democratic rule, and

Whereas, American justice and fair play demands that Poland which was greeted with hearty approval by the Jewish people upon her birth as a free nation through the efforts of America, should not deny to the Polish Jews those claims to fundamental human rights for which for many centuries she strove,

Now, therefore, be it Resolved by the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (if the House of Representatives concur) that we condemn these unspeakable horrors and brutal outrages and atrocities perpetrated against people who gave their life's blood on the fields of battle that freedom and equality may prevail throughout the world, and

Be it further Resolved, That the Secretary of the Commonwealth forward a copy of these resolutions to the Congress of the United States and to the President of the United States.

HOUSE CONCURS IN RESOLUTION REQUESTING CONGRESS TO INVESTIGATE TREATMENT OF NATIONAL GUARD OFFICERS.

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate, as follows:

In the Senate, May 27, 1919.

Whereas, certain officers who have had long and honorable military careers in the service of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, and have served with distinction on the Mexican Border in the United States service, and

Whereas, many of these officers, during their services in the National Guard, had been trained at numerous schools and encampments, and having become a part of the Twenty-eighth Division during the ten months of its training at Camp Hancock, were further trained in their duties and many of them graduated from Machine Gun, Infantry and Artillery School at Camp Hancock, Fort Sill and other places, and

Whereas, these officers performed their duties with efficiency, and displayed both zeal and valor on the various battlefields in France, and

Whereas, Many of these officers were relieved from their commands about the time that it became evident that a cessation of hostilities was about to take place, and Regular Army officers who had not taken part in the actual service during hostilities, were assigned to take their places, and

Whereas, many of these National Guard officers were relieved from their commands without cause, and in an unjust and arbitrary manner, and

Whereas, In some cases the reason given for such removals were totally unfounded and unsupported by evidence, and the officers relieved were not accorded the opportunity of contradicting the statements, or to vindicate themselves, or to have such impartial consideration as is required by the principles of justice, and

Whereas, The exercise of the arbitrary power of commanding officers who were of the Regular Army, was invariably directed against the former National Guardsmen to such an extent that there appears to have been a definite plan and design to discredit the National Guard,

Therefore, Be it Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the United States Congress, be requested to make such investigation of the whole subject as shall seem necessary and proper, and if it shall appear that the said officers have been treated unfairly, that proper recognition and vindication be given them, and that suitable reprimand or other punishment be given those guilty of such treatment, and that proper and adequate laws be enacted to prevent the recurrence of such injustice in the future.

TUESDAY, June 3, 1919.

The House met at 10:30 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Robert S. Spangler) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

O Thou Prince of Peace, look down and bestow upon us the heavenly boon that we, who are living in a whirlwind of disorder and strife and all manner of evil, and that our land and all lands, may be brought once again to that happy condition wherein the greatest of heaven's blessings shall rest upon us; and even as Thou didst settle the troubled waters of Tiberius, speak again, we pray Thee, to me that sweetest of all words that we may indeed have the greatest of all blessings. We are reaping the aftermath of war. The hand of Cain is going red throughout the land. Disseminators of discord are sowing the seed that will bring us a crimson harvest which will be as terrible as war itself. Professional agitators are endeavoring to widen the gulf between all manner of men. Everywhere there is jealousy and hatred and suspicion. Breathe upon us, O we pray Thee, Thy blessing that we may have that which will make our land happy and free once more; and may the various legislative bodies do their utmost to bring about that condition where every man, under his own vine and fig tree, may have sweet, blessed and holy peace. Amen.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I have shown all the courtesy that it is possible for me to show to the Committee on Manufactures. From time to time I have gone to the Chairman of the Committee and to various members, and asked that action be taken on this bill. This is not the only bill that labor has in that committee. Every one of the bills that has been introduced and referred to the Committee on Manufactures has been bottled up by that Committee. I have had other members go to the Chairman of the Committee to ask if he would take action. I even told him that if he wanted to defeat the bill on the floor of this House, or if the members of that committee did not think it was a good piece of legislation, at least the bill should come before the members of this House, in order that they could pass upon it. I do not believe in committees being handled as private institutions, and I have been led to believe that many of the committees in this House are nothing more or less than private institutions. I want to say to you that I went to Mr. Hess, the Chairman of this Committee, and said that I would be satisfied if he kept the other bills in committee and allowed this bill to come out. I have had nothing but promises and promises and promises, from one week to another, until there was nothing else to do but to discharge the committee from further consideration of the bill. All that I ask is that you place this bill on the calendar, and give labor half a show in this House.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, the bill which the gentleman from Lackawanna has asked to be taken from the committee is House Bill No. 303, which provides as follows:

"An Act providing that persons associations and corporations owning occupying or controlling premises upon which any contractor or sub-contractor shall be permitted to do certain classes of construction work shall be liable for the wages of all employes engaged in such work and for the cost of all materials supplied for such work unless the contractor or sub-contractor shall file a bond for the immediate payment of wages and the cost of material when due providing that a contractor shall be liable for the wages of employes of any sub-contractor and for the cost of materials furnished to any sub-contractor unless such sub-contractor shall file a bond covering the same requiring every such contractor or sub-contractor to file a bond specifying the form and amount of such bond and permitting persons furnishing labor or materials to sue in such bond to recover wages and the cost of such materials."

Shortly after its reference, the building trades of Philadelphia asked for a hearing on this bill. The people who advocated this bill, to whom Mr. Fowler has referred as organized labor, also asked for a hearing on this bill. After due notice, both sides to this issue were given an opportunity for a hearing, and with a largely attended session of that committee, a hearing was conducted, lasting about two hours. After that hearing, the commitee gave very careful deliberation and consideration to the bill. I feel that I am entirely right when I say that no bill in the Committee on Manufactures received so much time and so much careful consideration by every member of that committee as did House Bill No. 303. The committee finally voted to postpone further consideration of this bill indefinitely. Last week Mr. Fowler came to me and said that he had three bills in the Committee on Manufactures. He asked that we, out of courtesy to him, reconsider our action on House Bill No. 303 and he followed that up by saying, "If you will reconsider action on 303, I do not care what you do with the other bills you have got." Now he rings in here and says that the Committee on Manufactures have certain other bills that they have bottled up. My answer to Mr. Fowler was, that this afternoon, Tuesday of this week, when the Committee on Manufactures would have another hearing, that I would call this matter to the attention of the members of the committee, and if any of the members of the committee should change their mind, it was entirely satisfactory to me to have that action reconsidered. I intended, in the best faith in the world, to stand by that promise, and Mr. Fowler, this morning, a few hours before the time when I told him that the committee would have this matter brought to its attention, comes to this House and asks the House to discharge the committee from further consideration of the bill. The members of this House should not do that. I still intend to stand by the promise I made to the gentleman from Lackawanna (Mr. Fowler), and if the members of the committee in their judgment, after a thorough review of the matter and hearing of argument, decide to reconsider their action, I assure the gentleman from Lackawanna (Mr. Fowler) and the members of this House that it still be entirely satisfactory to me.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I am not the only member of this House who went to the Chairman of the Committee of Manufactures, and I assure you I have no intention of being contrary. The promise was made that everything would be done in order that this bill would come before the House. I did say to the Chairman of the Committee on Manufactures that the committee could keep the other two bills. I was perfectly satisfied that the committee should do that, but I was not satisfied that this bill should be smothered in the committee after the promise was made that everything would be done to release it. Of course, if the chairman and members of the committee act on the square on that bill, I am willing to withdraw the motion and permit the matter to go on in the proper way.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, by way of reassuring the gentleman from Lackawanna (Mr. Fowler), he is right when he says he spoke to me earlier than last week. But I think he will agree with me that I would bring the matter to the attention of the committee on Tuesday of this week. Of course, so far as the chairman guaranteeing the action of the committee is concerned, everybody knows that is impossible. The only thing the chairman could do was agree to resubmit the proposition to the members of the committee, and if the members of the committee saw fit to change their action, that was a matter for them, and I again say that I stand by that agreement.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my motion until such time as the committee acts.

Mr. HELT. Mr. Speaker, I withdraw my second.

The SPEAKER. The motion is therefore not before the House.

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1072, entitled

An Act providing for the nomination and election of the mayor members of council and city controller in cities of the second-class and repealing inconsistent laws

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House: This bill relates to the nomination and election of the mayor and members of council and city controllers of cities of the second class. The people of Allegheny County are very much opposed to it. At a recent meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Pittsburgh, which consists of a large membership, this bill was considered, and it was the unanimous action of the members of the Chamber of Commerce that this measure should be considered by the members of the Legislature with every consideration. Our present system of the non-partisan ballot in the City of Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, has been extremely successful. We have had the good fortune of having members of council and our mayor elected by the greatest majority of the people. We have had a full discussion as to the merits of the candidates, and at the present time our membership of council, elected on the non-partisan ballot, consists of men of the highest sterling quality. The great objection to this bill is that it would shut out the ambition of young men, of every man who has political ambition to become a candidate, by the very fact of the non-partisanship. It would make it impossible for any man with political ambition to have any opportunity to succeed in a political career. It is a step backward to attempt to change legislation that has been extremely successful. We have not only had the best type of American citizenship elected by the non-partisan ballot, and in Pittsburgh it has been extremely successful; and voting for a measure of this kind is only a step backward.

The non-partisan ballot gives us an opportunity of electing and selecting men who are willing to sacrifice their personal ambition in order to serve the public. It does not give the opportunity of controlling political bodies and selecting men who would bow to their will. It gives the opportunity not only of selecting these men, but calling upon them to do their duty and serve with civic pride. This is a step backward, members of the House, and I ask each and every member of this House to vote this bill down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1639, entitled

An Act to amend an act approved the first day of June, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws six hundred seven), entitled "An Act to establish an Insurance Department authorizing the appointment of an Insurance Commissioner and prescribing his powers and duties also providing for the licensing examination regulation and dissolution of insurance and surety companies and associations and for the licensing and regulation of insurance agents and insurance brokers also providing for the collection of fees and prescribing penalties for the violation of any of the provisions of this act and repealing all existing acts" as amended.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk then read the amendment as follows:

Amend line 18, page 5, by inserting after the word "revocation" the following: "Provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed as applying to domestic mutual fire insurance companies."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there any objections? The Chair hears none, and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. HOLLINGSWORTH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time from page 16 of today's calendar, House Bill No. 1643, file folio 4863, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. HOLLINGSWORTH.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1643, entitled

An Act prescribing the powers and duties of the Bureau of Markets in the Department of Agriculture and prescribing penalteis for violations of the provisions of this act

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JORDAN. Mr. Speaker, this is a component part of a co-operative bill. It comes from the Agriculture Department, and the purpose of the bill is to standardize measures so that the man who is the producer will be compelled to give you what he says he will give and the man consuming will know what he receives. I will show you what it means (exhibiting photographs of measures). Here are a number of measures that we have now, with quarts, and half-quarts, three-quarters, and this perhaps is reduced from one to three quarts. When I buy a quart of strawberries, maybe I will not get quite a quart. The gentleman from Juniata (Mr. Shellenberger) says he sent for a quart measure manufactured by different parties, different ones from each party, and scarcely ever would all measure the same. We don't want to lead farmers into temptation to sell perhaps nine-tenths of a quart instead of ten-tenths of a quart. We don't want them to pray, "Lead Us Not Into Temptation." We don't want them to begin to sell to the city folks anything but a simplified standard instead of having more than that. I want to show you how many measures we have running up to a bushel measure. Here are measures (referring to photographs) with thirty and a half quarts, thirty-one, and the amount might be twenty-two and a half quarts as likely as a thirty-one quart measure. This one (indicating) is a thirty-two quart measure and this one (indicating) would probably be thirty-one. Here is the idea of putting out this simplified measure: there will be no thirty and a half or thirty-one quarts to a bushel, but it will be just a plain bushel, and then the seller and the buyer will know where they are and what kind of measure they are giving and you are getting. It is the Agricultural Department simply endeavoring to make us be honest so that a man will not be without knowledge of what he is getting. I hope that the bill will pass.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 1517, file folio 5061, on page 16 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. JAMES A. WALKER.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1517, entitled

An Act to regulate the sale of certain bakery products by prohibiting the return exchange of or credit for the same except in certain cases and providing penalties for violation thereof

On the question, recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to correct a little misapprehension that may remain with reference to this bill. This bill, in its nature, is a conservation bill. During the war just closing we discovered that among the things most wasted was wheat and flour, and one of the ways in which this waste has been was in the return of loaves of bread and baked material such as rolls that have perhaps grown stale. This bill is to correct that by providing that goods shall not be returned to the bakers unless they are, first, in a bad condition; or second, so wrapped that they cannot deteriorate from exposure or by handling by other people. The bill is a great benefit to the small baker. There are some of the larger bakers that can afford to take back stale loaves of bread because they can grind them up into bread crumbs and sell them; but the small baker has no market for bread crumbs. Furthermore, when the small baker knows how much each house or person will use up, he will make up his dough in accordance with his requirements and there will thereby be a saving and he will not have any stale loaves returned on him without a particular cause. So, this helps the small baker and the big baker, I understand, has no objection to it. It will help in the conservation of flour and permit of the use of it in other ways. For these reasons it is deemed to be a meritorious measure, and I trust the members will support it.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. James A. Walker).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. James A. Walker) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman (Mr. Cox) will proceed.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman whether this is not an individual contract between the baker and the distributor?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, not necessarily. As I understand it, if I order bread from the baker, I order so many loaves a day, and if I am not home or if I do not use the bread the ordinary custom has been to return it. But there is no continuing contract.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, as I understand, the baker makes a contract with the distributor to handle the bread, and the distributor must return the bread that he does not sell. Now I think, from what I read of the bill, that it violates the act of contract which I do not think the Legislature has a right to interfere with.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, it violates no general contract. There may be special contracts which, of course, the act does not include; but if there is a special contract, no Act of Assembly, under the Constitution, can violate it. But if there is not a special contract, just a word from the distributor to the consumer, you bake me fifty loaves a day, and a baker says I am not going to take back any more stuff after our contract has expired," That ends the contract and that makes the baker safe in that he does not waste his flour, and makes the distributor say to the baker, "I must have thirty loaves of bread instead of fifty, as I can sell thirty loaves."

It saves flour, gentlemen, absolutely, and in saving flour we save money.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman further.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Cox) will proceed.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, suppose I was to ask for credit for bread with the bakers at the place of consignment, do you mean to say by this bill that I would not be given credit?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir, if you had a contract you would be given credit.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman, what public benefit does this bill give?"

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, it gives this benefit: That where a contract for credit exists, at the expiration of that contract the baker may say, "I am not going to extend that contract any further, and if you wish another or a new contract with me, you may make one."

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, well then, if the contract is violated, naturally, the distributor has no recourse at all.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, that would not be a violation. It would be a new contract.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, it would be, if this bill passes.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I do not agree with the gentleman. If a contract is in existence an Act of Assembly cannot alter that contract. That contract runs until its expiration. But where the contract has been in existence and then expires, the right exists to the contractual parties to say, "We will not extend the provisions of the present contract, but ask that you fall with us under the benefit of this act."

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman of what public benefit is the bill?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, it is of public benefit. In the first place, as I said, it prevents a return, an unnecessary return of bread and articles made from flour, and thereby prevents a waste of the flour, because if we consider, let us say, ninety-nine out of one hundred bakers are small bakers, the corner store bakers, and they cannot afford to take back these goods and they are wasted; and you and I, and all of us know, that one of the things that surprised us most during the pendency of the war was the fact that so much stale bread was thrown out into the garbage. That was due to the fact that the bakers had to take back the unused bread or the grocer had no desire to return the bread and the baker would not take it back from the consumer and therefore it went into the garbage. Those who have made a study inform me that this will save flour and if flour can be saved, necessarily, it should be done and we should reap the benefit.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, what I want to get clear in my mind is that when goods are delivered to any consignee under this bill they cannot be returned?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir, if they are under a contract they can.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, if that is absolutely so, what good is the bill then?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, because, take the place of the small baker, it helps the small baker and small consumer who have none of these contracts. I warrant that the members of this House, probably most of them, are not consignees under contracts with bakers, and it means we will know just what we want and pay for it. We have nothing to return, and we will know what we have need of and it will not be thrown into the garbage, and the baker will know what quantity to make for us and will not make an over-supply and cause it to go to waste.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman whether it is not true that the bakers sell to the poor a loaf of bread that is one day old a cent or two cheaper, and if this bill went into effect it would rob the poor of that benefit?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, no, not as I understand it.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman along this line: if this bread is returned to a baker by a distributor, are not the poor robbed of the chance of getting the bread a cent or two cheaper?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, no, because the baker does not sell returned loaves. He may sell bread that is twenty-four hours old, but it does not consist of returned loaves.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I am under the impression, and I am well informed, that in the lower section of our city—that is, Philadelphia—you can get a loaf of bread one or two cents cheaper from bakers, and this can not be done under this bill. I believe that this bill will affect the individual contracts, and naturally the poor will be robbed of the chance of getting the bread cheaper, and the big companies will benefit.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I cannot concur in the proposition of the gentleman from Philadelphia, for this reason: if flour is saved, we have more flour. If we have more flour the price will fall, and the poor will therefore be able to get a fresh loaf of bread cheaper, instead of stale bread, and why shouldn't they have fresh bread as well as those of us who are better able to pay for it?

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. James A. Walker).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. James A. Walker) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman this: if a distributor of bread does not get credit for the bread that he has to return does he not know that that would have the effect of raising the price of bread?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, no, most assuredly no, and I think I can tell you why. I do not know how it is in the rest of the State, but in Philadelphia County we have a big wholesale and retail grocery concern, called the American Stores Company. They run entrate grocery stores, and I understand that in the entire city they are the only concern that sells bread on contracts such as referred to by the gentlemen from Philadelphia who has interrogated me. This baker, generally, is not under a consignment contract. There may be a few instances, but generally they are under no such contracts. Furthermore, if there is a semblance of correctness in these arguments, the fact remains that there is nothing to prevent the poor from going to the consignee and paying for one-day-old bread. This prevents waste and will bring down the price of bread as the price of flour is lowered. I believe that the bill is a good bill, because it will give to the poor an opportunity to get fresh bread instead of paying for stale bread.

Mr. GLASS. I do not quite agree with the statement of the sponsor of the bill. I desire to state at this time that if the distributor of bread is unable to get credit for bread that he has been unable to sell, the tendency would be for that distributor to charge a little bit more for the bread to make up for the loss that he probably would have. That is the only conclusion you can draw from this bill. The consumer, eventually, would have to pay for the bread returned, and I do not think at this session and at this time that we should legislate against the consumer. I do not think that the consumer ought to pay for any waste, and if you enact this bill into law, that is what is going to happen.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Glass).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Glass) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Do you know that the baker increases the price of his bread to take care of the loss he must sustain on returned loaves?

Mr. GLASS. No, he dosen't.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. You do not know that?

Mr. GLASS. No, it is competition. It is not a fact that he sells the bread at a reduced rate. The bread that is returned is sold at a reduced price to the poorer class of people that cannot afford to buy fresh bread.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. I refer to the cost at which he sells fresh bread. Does he not include in the price the possible loss comes from the return of loaves of bread?

Mr. GLASS. No.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. You don't know that?

Mr. GLASS. I know he does not .

Mr. MILNER. Mr. Speaker, this bill provides that no baker shall give credit for the return of bread. If the intent was to affect a public benefit, there would be no necessity of putting in a clause that he should not give credit for the bread. This bill is plainly put before this legislature to benefit some private interests. There have been lobbyists about this House for a month, interested in this measure affecting certain baking interests, which are detrimental to the general interests of the baking business, especially in Philadelphia. This bill does not affect any saving because it prevents the return of bread that could be utilized by re-sale or converted to some other purpose. This bill has no good efficiency back of it and is put here for purely private interests. Therefore, in my opinion, I think this House ought to vote it down.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, as a Philadelphian, I feel that I would be slighting myself if I did not get into this controversy in some way or other, and I wish to interrogate the sponsor of this bill. The sponsor of this bill mentioned the return of loaves from the consumer to the small store on the corner——

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. James A. Walker), permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask if it is possible, under this bill to eliminate, or does this bill eliminate or regulate in any way the return by a consumer to the store on the corner?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, that is the purpose of the bill.

Mr. GOLDER. As I read the bill, Mr. Speaker, it provides that no person, firm, partnership, corporation or association, engaged in the manufacture or sale of macaroni, bread, cakes, etc. shall accept returns of or give credit for any exchange of any such bakery products. As I read the bill it would apply to the return by the consumer of certain articles to the manufacturer of that article. Now this bill provides that certain articles may be returned, those which are contained in a securely fastened package. Those which are not so contained may not be returned. I fail to see the difference so far as the sale of a loaf of bread is concerned whether it is securely fastened in a cardboard box or in tissue paper. A loaf of bread that is wrapped in tissue paper for one day cannot be returned. If the loaf of bread is securely fastened in a cardboard box, after a week it can be returned. I fail to see where there is any saving to the consumer or any saving in the quantity of flour. It does seem to me to be an extreme waste of flour where you have thirty or forty loaves of bread in a store which cannot be returned because it is not in a cardboard box, and it appears to me that if you would allow the return of that bread rather than compelling it to be destroyed,—if it could be returned and could be sold it would prevent more waste.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Glass) will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I rose to a point of order before any bills were reported, and I was ignored by the Chair, and I wish to be so recorded. Mr. Speaker, I rose to a point of order before the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Gans) reported a bill and before the bill came to the desk. I rose to a point of order, and the Chair did not entertain my point of order, and I understand that the only reason for not sustaining my point of order was because the Chair wanted the bill reported.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognized the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Gans), and did not recognize the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Glass).

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, when a point of order is raised, it is the duty of the Chair to recognize the gentleman raising the point of order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has already overruled the point of order of the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Glass).

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. GLASS) will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I know right well what the Chair has said is correct, but when a member rises to his feet on the floor of the House, and raises a point of order, it matters not who else is on the floor of the House, the Chair must recognize the man who raises the point of order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state for the information of the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Glass) that whatever the gentleman has to say as a matter of personal privilege, the Chair is ready to hear when the business that is before the House has been finally disposed of.

MEMORIAL SESSION.

The SPEAKER. The time having arrived for the holding of the Memorial Service, out of respect of the members of the House who have died within the last few years, the Chair declares that the House will now proceed to this duty.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege at this time.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his question of privilege.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, when bills were reported from committee, a certain bill was purported to have been reported to this House, Senate Bill No. 321, as amended. I understand that the original bill which has been amended —the original bill that has passed the Senate which is purported to have been amended—has not been reported to the desk and, therefore, I take it that the report of the committee could not have been accepted by the Chair. I take it that it is an irregularity in the proceedings.

The SPEAKER. The bill is reported with the amended copy attached.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, the proceedings of the Senate do not appear on that bill. It does not show what action has been taken in the Senate, and I want to call the Speaker's attention to that irregularity.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's point of order is not well taken.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, does the Chair rule that the bill is a proper bill as reported?

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Ramsey) will state his point of order.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia secured the floor to talk upon a question of personal privilege and now he gets into the question of a point of order. I don't think that the gentleman means to rise to a point of order.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. GLASS. I rise to a point of order.

Mr. SPEAKER. The Chair is inclined to be indulgent at this time, but as a matter of fact the gentleman from Philadelphia is not in order.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will overrule the gentleman's point of order. The Chair will be ready and willing to entertain the gentleman's point of order after the holding of the memorial service.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will not recognize the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Glass). The only business now in order is the proceedings of the Memorial Session. The chaplain will offer prayer.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

This council hall, O Thou God of the living, is now a chamber in which we shall think of the dead. With us there remains the lifeless clay in the distant cities of the sleeping dead. To Thee have gone the souls of those who have winged their way to that endless day which shall still be youthful when the milleniums have passed away. We have come here in the solemnity and seriousness of mind that is necessary to approach Thee, mindful of the fact that they point out the way of all flesh even our own way; Though we cannot help, hurt or hinder those who have gone before, yet we beseech Thee that we may at this time pay proper respect to those that have gone and may all that by Thine indwelling that was good in them, all that was noble and worthy of emulation and wherein Thy spirit strove mightily be preserved by us. Help us to take heart that we may carry on those virtues and where, in the frailty of flesh and sin, they came short ,grant unto us we may be charitable in thought and warned of our faults. We would bring before Thee tonight our thoughts concerning those that have been left; they who mourn in silence and whose hearts are broken; and we pray Thee to be nigh to them and to give the cheer and comfort that may come along in the consciousness that Thou art a kind and loving Father, that all of Thy ways are marked out, that Thou knowest our end before our careers have been begun. Give unto us the undying hope of the resurrection; fill our souls with thoughts of Thee that we may sing in that New Jerusalem the great song of Moses and the lamb; and help us that we may so live that when our time shall come, we shall approach our grave without timidity, knowing that the Good Shepherd shall lead us through all the icy waters of death only to bring us out on the golden shores of the deathless day. Now make Thou fruitful to our hearts and minds all that shall be said and done here so that Thy name may be glorified and that we may be elevated, and that the mourning ones may receive genuine words of cheer and comfort. Amen.

HON. JOHN MCKAY MEMORIAL SERVICE.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Simpson.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: I have been accorded the honor of reading the resolution on the death of Hon. John McKay, of Luzerne County.

RESOLUTION

UPON THE DEATH OF JOHN McKAY, OF LUZERNE COUNTY.

Whereas, It has pleased an allwise Providence to call from his earthly home the soul of our fellow member, Hon. John McKay, and

Whereas, He was a true, faithful and efficient Member of this House, devoting his entire time to the benefit of his constituents and for the welfare of the State of Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, He was a true, dutiful and affectionate husband and kind and loving father; and,

Whereas, He was an ardent believer in his true christian faith and an untiring worker and supporter of his Church; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the Members of the General Assembly, bow in humble submission to the will of the Divine Providence; and be it further

Resolved, That we mourn the loss of our deceased brother and in so doing that a copy of this resolution be read in this House and spread upon the journal of this House, and that an embossed copy thereof be delivered to the widow and family of the deceased Member, John McKay of Luzerne County.

H. W. SIMPSON,
JAMES A. WALKER,
RICHARD POWELL,
Committee.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: We meet here at this hour to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of one who has been a member of this House for the past six years.

John McKay was an aggressive, earnest member; born in Nova Scotia, 1855. He came to Pennsylvania in 1872, and he began work as a coal miner in the County of Luzerne. He was for some time a resident of Edwardsville, my home town, and later moved to Luzerne Borough, where he resided until he died. He was elected Burgess of Luzerne Borough in 1883, and was also elected to the office of Justice of the Peace from 1883 to 1888.

He was first elected to the Legislature in 1912 and again in 1916 and 1918. I doubt whether there was a member in this House more earnest and zealous in looking after the interest of his constituents, than was John McKay. He was very attentive in his Committee duties and kept himself well informed upon all the measures introduced in the House. He was particularly interested in opposing all liquor legislation, and it was upon this issue that he became such a strong candidate in his district, and upon which he was so frequently elected, and I am strongly of the opinion that no greater pleasure came into his life than when he saw the House and Senate vote in favor of ratifying the Prohibition Amendment to the Federal Constitution.

His sad and unexpected death caused the profoundest sorrow in the community wherein he lived and was a severe shock to his friends and neighbors, and also to the fellow members of the House of Representatives.

The value of a good man to a community is not estimated only by the extent of his contributions to the church and other philanthropic institutions, but by the amount of character he gives to the body politic; the weight of his opinion in new enterprises, his honesty and sincerity of purpose, and the help and encouragement he gives to mankind generally.

Mr. McKay was a courteous gentleman, and all who came to know him well were attracted to him by his gentle, winning disposition and his unassuming manner. A frown never darkened his brow, nor a harsh word fell from his lips. Even in the heat of a political campaign, he would apologize for his contestants when their actions were assailed. In every position of trust and distinction to which his fellow citizens saw fit to elevate him, he discharged his duties faithfully and conscientiously.

He adorned christianity by a life of unceasing attention to the wants of humanity and a conscientious rectitude in all his dealings with his fellow men, as well as by a devout profession of morality and religion. As a citizen he was prompt in the discharge of his civic duties, active in the advancement of the industrial, educational and religious interest of his community. He was especially interested in young men for he saw in them the future stability and greatness of our country. In furthering their interests, to the liberality of his heart and hand, he added a life worthy of emulation.

Mr. Speaker we have missed him in this Hall; the community in which he lived has sustained a great loss in its ranks of noble manhood; the church and the Sunday school in which he labored so faihtfully are yet mourning their loss; his friends throughout the country and State have lost the encouragement of his confidence and the support of his friendship, but Mr. Speaker in one place above all others, he is most sadly missed, "In his Home." That home, so happy, the habitation of contenment, joy and love, to him the strongest attractions on earth. Alas, there indeed, the desolation of his absence gathers like a deep shadow of gloom about the partner of his bosom and the daughter of his love. Their's is the sorrow that endures. Others may forget him; the place he occupied in the ranks of his fellow men may in time be filled again, but the place of husband and father must forever remain vacant.

My own share in this bereavement has caused me much sorrow; I knew Mr. McKay, personally for a life time; we considered many legislative questions relating to our home county; and while we differed on local option and prohibition, we reached conclusions satisfactory to us both on many other questions. I gained much by being brought into close contact with his genial disposition and his right judgment. The high regard I entertained for Mr. McKay ripened into sincere appreciation of his manly character, as from day to day I observed his intercourse with his fellow members upon the floor of the House. Although he was unassuming and unobtrusive, new members profited by his encouragement and helpful suggestions. Death is at all times sad, but it is most bitter when it strikes down a friend in his usefulness, just as we come to feel the warm sympathy of his heart and to appreciate the noble example of his life.

Death reminds me of the famous verse of Omar Kyham, when he wrote the following:

"Consider ye the flower in the morning time: At sunrise it raiseth it's head; at noon tide the sun, setting in the heavens, the flower looketh straight up; at evening tide, as the sun sinketh in the west, the flower droops, and dies and goeth where?"

To the living, death is not all loss. It stays our hurrying feet, it relaxes the attention from our personal cares and interests. It brings before us in a new light, the great object lesson of Christ upon the Cross. It takes us down the road from Jerusalem to Jericho, where we reflect upon our duties toward our fellow men, like the modest author of these lines, we ask: "Are our ilves worth living?" And like him may we answer:

"Yes, as long
As there is wrong to right,
Wail of the weak against the strong,
Or tyranny to fight.

"While there is one untrodden track
For intellect or will;
And men are free to think and act,
Life is worth living still."

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the House: I arise at this time to say a few words in memory of the late John McKay, of Luzerne County, who was a member of the 1917 session and also 1919 session. He was a friend and companion never to be forgotten, an accomplished Christian gentleman, always mindful of all the minor courtesies and delicate attentions which had so much human happiness. His habit of courtesy and thoughtful consideration of others was no mere surface polish, but rather the outward expression of his unbearing kindness of heart. How full he was of this rare culture will be attested especially by the older members of this House and also by many of the new members with whom he came in contact and to whom his presence, his cheer and his friendship were an inspiration and a benediction.

In his home his best qualities appeared. He was devoted to his family. We recall the interest he took in his little girl of whom he was most fond, also his wife, to whom he was very much devoted. During this present session, when the curtain descended upon the Honorable John McKay, Luzerne County lost one of its noblest citizens. The Legislature of Pennsylvania lost one of its most conscientious workers. His family lost a very devoted father and husband.

He has gone from us in the midst of his work and the fullness of his fame. We mourn his loss because it is not only to his family and this House but also to the people of his county and State where he had so long and usefully lived. In all these relations, however, he was faithful in the performance of his duty and conscientious in the execution of every trust devolving upon him.

He belonged to that class of men who are always mindful of others, looking after the welfare of others, very charitable and kind, and belonged to the class spoken about in divine writ, where the Great Teacher was instructing his disciples what to do, and when they answered Him: "When saw we Thee an hungered and gave Thee not to eat; or when saw we Thee naked and clothed Thee not; or thirsty, and gave Thee not to drink; or in prison and visited Thee not?" And He answered, "As oft as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

Oliver Wendell Holmes describes this man when he said:

"You hear that boy laughing, you think he is all fun,
But the Angels laugh too at the good he has done;
The children laugh loud as they troop to his call,
But the poor man who knows him laughs loudest of all.

"Yes, we are all boys, always talking with tongue or with pen,
And sometimes have asked, 'Shall we ever be men?'
Shall we always be laughing and useful and gay,
Till the last dear companion drops smilingly away?

"Then here's to our manhood in syllable fire,
The frosts of the winter, the dews of the May,
And when then outdone with our life's lasting toys,
Dear Father, in Heaven, take care of Thy children, the boys."

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I move the adoption of the resolution on the death of Honorable John McKay, of Luzerne County.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

HON. HENRY GRANSBACK MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: Two years ago Philadelphia County was called upon to commemorate the death of one of its young and brilliant members, the Honorable Charles Roney. At that memorial meeting a speaker used these lines:

"There is a Reaper whose name is Death,
And with his sickle keen
He reaps the bearded grain at a breath,
And the flowers that grow between."

Full of years and of good works, the dark Angel of Death gathered in the fully ripened grain when he took to that "bourne of time and space" from "whence no traveler returns" him whom it was a privilege and a pleasure to know, the Honorable Henry Gransback, of the Ninth District of Philadelphia County. There are others here who might speak of him more personally than can I, men who knew him through the many years of association, men like the Honorable Richard Curry, who was his close friend, and men like the Honorable James Franklin, an old associate of his in public affairs. But no one in this House respected him any more than did I or loved him better. His life is an emblem of real American manhood. A public school boy, and an apprentice at a trade, a workman in that trade, a soldier in the Union Army during the Civil War, and, after his honorable discharge therefrom, an official in the United States Revenue Department. Then he entered business life on his own account and successfully and honestly acquitted himself therein. With loyalty, fidelity and integrity he served as a Member of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania in the sessions of 1895, 1897 and in 1899. In the Senate of Pennsylvania he served as a Senator in the sessions of 1901, 1903 and 1905. Again his friends and his neighbors returned him to the House of Representatives after the last legislative apportionments in 1909, 1911, 1913, 1915 and in 1917; and he was renominated as a member of this present House in 1919. Thus, from his birth, on January 17, 1836, until his death, August 31, 1918, he stood a monument to the American system of government which takes one from the loins of the people and raises him to the pinnacle of being the faithful representative of that people.

Often during the last session I observed him as he moved up and down this aisle from and to his place at the left of Mr. Richard Curry. His innate courtesy and refinement was indeed a marked trait. A smile, a kind word of greeting to those whom he passed, the brightening of his keen gray eyes as he met old friends caused him ever to be to me, a "gentleman of the old school," and our sorrow is that so few of them now remain. Often as he came up this aisle, aided by his cane, looking eagerly into the faces of his younger and newer friends, he made me think of those lines of Doctor Holmes:

"I saw him once before,
As he passed by the door,
And again
The pavement stones resound
As he totters o'er the ground
With his cane.

"They say that in his prime,
Ere the pruning knife of time
Cut him down
Not a better man was found
By the Crier on his round
Through the town.

"But now he walks the streets
And he looks at all he meets,
Sad and wan,
And he shakes his feeble head
That it seems as if he said
'They are gone.'

"The mossy marbles rest
On the lips that he has prest
In their bloom;
And the names he loved to hear
Have been carved for many a year
On the tomb."

At the close of the last session Mr. Gransback was presented with a beautiful easy chair. Though such a suggestion might have caused him to retire from the active arena of public life and cause him to rest, full of years and of honor, in that chair, his strong sense of duty still to be performed led him to again accept the nomination as a member of this House. His spirit was indeed willing for the service but his flesh was weak and upon was he stricken with an illness which finally caused him to be "gathered unto his father," yet from him, in his dying hours it seems this message comes to us:

"The course of my long life hath reached at least,
In fragile bark o'er a tempestuous sea,
The common harbor, where must rendered be
Account of all the actions of the past."

With his four stalwart sons and that fair daughter, we truly sorrow, but not as those without a hope, for as we view his life, his work, his sacrifice and his service, we recall the great Webster's words:

"That which made these men, and men like these, cannot expire."

"These shall resist the empire of decay,
When time is o'er and worlds have passed away:
Cold in the dust the perishsed heart may die,
But that which warmed it once can never die."

And so, Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the Philadelphia delegation, I move the adoption of the following resolution:

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF HON. HENRY GRANSBACK, SR.

Whereas, It pleased Almighty God, on August 31st 1918, to call from his earthly labor to his heavenly rest the Honorable Henry Gransback, Sr., a member of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania from the Ninth District, Philadelphia County; and

Whereas, Representative Gransback during his long life of nearly 83 years was an exemplar of fidelity in the service of our Country, our Commonwealth and his native City of Philadelphia, as a soldier in the Civil War, as a United States Internal Revenue Officer, and as a member of the General Assembly not only in this House but also in the Senate since the year 1895, excepting the Session of 1907, and as a citizen and merchant in the City of Philadelphia; and

Whereas, His courtesy, kindness and faithfulness as a member of this House endeared all those who were privileged to know the Honorable Henry Gransback to him and earned for him the title "the Father of the House"; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania profoundly regrets the passing of our old friend Honorable Henry Gransback, Sr., late a member of this body, and extends to his sons and daughter sincere condolences; and be it further

Resolved, That while we keenly feel our own loss yet do we desire to testify to his great worth as a man, his patriotism as a soldier; his ability, integrity and wisdom as a legislator; and his courtesy, refinement and faithfulness towards all those with whom he became associated; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these Resolutions, with the action of this House thereon, be transmitted by the Clerk of the House to the family of the deceased.

JAMES A. WALKER,
RICHARD CURRY.

Mr. RICHARD CURRY. Mr. Speaker, I second the adoption of the resolution.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted.

HON. GEORGE HIBSHMAN MEMORIAL SERVICE.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Hess.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, on behalf of the Lancaster County delegation, I offer the following resolution:

Whereas, The Honorable George Hibshman, who was a member of the House of Representatives of Pennsylvania from the Second District of Lancaster County for six consecutive terms, was called from the scene of his earthly activities, March 16, 1918; and

Whereas, During his life he rendered to his community, to his native county and to the State and Nation, important service as a farmer, a citizen and legislator; therefore be it

Resolved, That in his death, his community, his county and his State have sustained a loss, and that it is fitting and proper that we should recognize his ability, his service and his devotion to the best interests of his vocation, his county and the Commonwealth; and

Resolved, That the House of Representatives extend to his family, bereaved of his manly presence and worthy example, its profound sympathy and prays for them such consolation as comes only in times of bereavement from Him who doeth all things well and that we join with them in the satisfaction that comes from the knowledge of his rich personality and splendid achievement; and

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions, with the action of the House thereon, duly engrossed and attested, be forwarded to his family.

MICHAEL R. HOFFMAN,
HARRY L. RHOADS,
AARON B. HESS,
T. GRAYBILL DIEHM,
JOSEPH T. EVANS.

Mr. SPEAKER. I move the adoption of these resolutions, and in doing so, I deem it a privilege to pay tribute to the memory of a worthy man.

Hon. George Hibshman was the descendent of a worthy line of Anglo-Saxon parentage, who followed the advance of civilization when they migrated to this country and settled in the southeastern part of Pennsylvania in the County of Lancaster. Here amid the fertile valleys they had opportunity to exemplify their skill in making two blades of grass grow where one had grown before. The Hon. George Hibsman was born at Ephrata, Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, August 29, 1852. He was a direct descendent of the Hon. Jacob Hibshman, a member of the 16th Congress, and later an associate judge of Lancaster County. He was educated in the public schools and later learned the trade of machinist, at which he worked for eight years. After this, he turned to farming, and during the remainder of his life he lived on the farm which was the scene of his birth and which had for many years been the property of his forebears. By his close application and untiring efforts he produced such results on this farm as to attract the attention of men from all parts of the State, interested in agriculture, and his advice and counsel were sought by many on the various phases of his chosen calling.

He was a man of stubborn determination and deep piety, a man who had a peculiar sense of appreciation of humor, and who hated hypocrisy. His ability and standing in his community were such as to demand of him public service. He was for years interested in farm institute work and was, at the time of his death, secretary and treasurer of the Lancaster County Tobacco Growers Association, to the growing of which crop he had given most careful attention, and on which subject he was regarded as an expert. He was called into counsel in banking and business enterprises and was for years a member of the Republican County Committee. He was at all times a Party man, worthy of confidence, and his promise could be depended upon. In 1906, he was elected to membership in this body, and he served during the sessions of 1907, 1909, 1913, 1915 and in 1917. Had he lived, he would in all probability have been re-elected in 1918. I recall him during the session of 1917, at which time he was already sorely afflicted. It appeared at times, as he reflected upon his affliction and reflected upon the past, as though he were dwelling just on the shadow of the border land beyond, and as he looked over into the mist of the yonder world and reflected upon the experiences of his past life, he made fellowship with him sweet and pleasant, a companionship one never to be forgotten. He was Chairman of the Committee on Agriculture and as such, had an opportunity to use the vast fund of knowledge he had acquired on agricultural subjects. As a man and a legislator he exemplified all the best qualities of his race and kind. He was stalwart, honest, and attentive to his duty. He was ever at his post, and shirked no labor, believing no time ill-spent in investigating the matters that came before him for investigation and deliberation. He was faithful to his party, faithful to his friends and faithful to the traditions of his fathers.

While such occasions as these are always sad, we temper our bereavement with the pleasant recollections of the noble characteristics of the honored dead. In the language of the poet we can say:

There is no death! What seems so is transition; this life of mortal breath;
Is but the suburb of the life elysian, whose portals men call death.

While we regret his loss, we rejoice in the example he has left us. We are pursuaded that he was ready and willing to respond to any summons that the future held for him. Whether to new duties and responsibilities in life, or to the final summons of the Master.

Another link in the golden chain of friendship is broken. We miss you friend Hibshman. May our loss be your gain. May you now be at rest amid the scenes of eternal springtime. The sweetness, simplicity, and honesty of your life are reflected from the path you trod. May these worthy principles always be exemplified in the lives of your posterity, and may they inspire them and us to deeper devotion for the common good. And may we be moved to so live that when our summons comes to join the enumerable caravan that moves to that mysterious realm where each shall take his chamber in the quiet halls of death, we go not like a quarry slave at night scourged to his dungeon but sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave like one wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Joseph T. Evans.

Mr. JOSEPH T. EVANS. The Speaker, in rising to second the adoption of this resolution, I most emphatically endorse all that has been so well stated by my colleague, Mr. Hess. It was not my privilege to serve in the General Assembly with George Hibshman, and I will confine my remarks to him as we all knew him at home.

He was born, raised and lived most of his life near Ephrata, Lancaster County. He was a decendent from a good Lancaster County family. He came of good stock. With the exception of a few years all his life was devoted to agriculture. He owned and operated one of the finest farms in the northern end of Lancaster County, and was one of our best and most progressive farmers. It was his aim to make two blades of grass grow where only one grew before, as has been stated by Mr. Hess. I often heard him make that expression. With him agriculture was more an art than a means to make money. He took more pride in raising a large crop by the most improved methods than in the revenue derived from the sale of the same. It was my privilege to know him the last twenty-one years of his life, quite intimately the latter part of that time, and I always found him to be square. I was proud to count myself one of his friends. He was the sole of hospitality and was never happier than when he was entertaining his friends at his home farm near Ephrata. The latch string was always out.

Amongst his neighbors, he was beloved, and he never turned a deaf ear to any who were in trouble or need. We all took pride in the fact of having him for our local representative, as is attested by his twelve years of continuous service. He was always approachable and sympathetic.

It was my privilege to know him in his home life—as the real man was. As most of you knew him here, so was he at home. He was a loving husband, a faithful father and a kind friend.

We all miss him, but his family and all his friends have that most highly prized heritage left us by him, that of a life well spent, a splendid name for his family to cherish, and the loving memory with which he will always be remembered by his friends. Mr. Speaker, I second the adoption of the resolution.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the adoption of the resolution?

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

HON. GEORGE J. A. MILLER MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Mr. ALBERT E. CURRY. Mr. Speaker, I have been asked to read the following tribute to the memory of Honorable George J. A. Miller, of Lehigh County:

"Honorable George J. A. Miller was born in Slatington, Pa., on October 2, 1887, and died of influenza on October 24, 1918. He was the only son of John and Amanda Miller. He was educated in the public schools of his native town, and from there went to Perkiomen Seminary. Upon graduation there, he attended Keuka College at Pennyan, New York. He completed his course of study in Dickinson Law School, where he was graduated in the year, 1909. He passed his examination for admission to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, and was admitted to that court, and the Superior Court of Pennsylvania, and the United States District Court, and to the Lehigh County Bar on October 31, 1909. He had been in active practice of the law since his admission to the bar.

"He was appointed to the office of Burgess of Slatington, by Judge Clinton A. Groman, in 1914. In 1916 he was elected to the General Assembly of Pennsylvania and served his term very creditably, and again at the May primaries of this year he was nominated on the Republican ticket and endorsed by the Democratic party for the same office.

"He was active in the affairs of his home town and sought to promote its welfare in many ways. He was president of the Slatington Chamber of Commerce, solicitor for Borough Council, National Bank of Slatington and the School Board of Slatington until the time of his death.

"He built up a large practice in his native town and vicinity, which would have assured him a promising future."

Mr. Speaker, I wish to say of Honorable George J. A. Miller, that he died in the very prime of his young manhood, at the age of thirty-one years. He died of the influenza only ten days prior to the time of the fall election, and doubtless would have been elected to this body had he lived. He has gone, but his memory still lingers, and will linger, as a precious perfume in the lives of the many with whom he came in contact.

I wish to offer, Mr. Speaker, the following resolution upon the death of Honorable George J. A. Miller, of Lehigh County:

RESOLUTION UPON THE DEATH OF HON. GEORGE J. A. MILLER, OF LEHIGH COUNTY.

Whereas, It has pleased an all-wise Providence to call from his earthly home the soul of the Honorable George J. A. Miller, a member of the session of 1917; and,

Whereas, He was a true, faithful and efficient member of the House of 1917, devoting his entire time to the benefit of his constituents and for the welfare of the State of Pennsylvania; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the General Assembly, bow in humble submission to the will of the Divine Providence; and be it further

Resolved, That we mourn the loss of the deceased brother, and in so doing that a copy of this resolution be read in this House and spread upon the Journal of this House, and that an embossed copy thereof be delivered to the parents of the deceased, Honorable George J. A. Miller, of Lehigh County.

SAMUEL J. EVANS,
ALBERT E. RINN,
CHAS. A. REBER,
Committee.

Mr. ALBERT E. CURRY. Mr. Speaker, I move the adoption of the resolution I have just read.

Mr. CHARLES A. REBER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

HON. I. K. URICH MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following resolution:

Whereas, The Honorable I. K. Urich, a member of the House of Representatives for the County of Lebanon for the session of 1915 and 1917, has passed into eternal rest; and

Whereas, His qualities of heart and mind and distinguished public service deserve our sincere testimony and commemoration; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby records its tribute to our late member, and its grateful acknowledgment of the conscientious service he rendered.

Resolved, That in the death of Dr. I. K. Urich, Lebanon County has lost a distinguished citizen, an able physician and a faithful Representative, and that the State of Pennsylvania and this Assembly have been deprived of a wise and courageous law-maker.

Resolved, That we tender to the family of the late Honorable I. K. Urich our heartfelt sympathy in their great loss and direct that a copy of these resolutions, duly engrossed and attested, be forwarded to the members of the bereaved family.

CHAS. T. HICKERNELL.
L. SAYLOR ZIMMERMAN.

Mr. SPEAKER and gentlemen of this House: I would be unfaithful to my personal feelings and unresponsive to the sentiments of my constituents were I to allow this memorial hour to pass by without a word of tribute to the memory of Dr. I. K. Urich. Twice a member of this House, and again the candidate of his party for this office for a third term, he was defeated, not by the ballots of his constituents, but by the grim hand of death. He who had on countless occasions kept a silent and faithful watch at the bedside of the sick and the afflicted and the suffering, he who had by his consummate skill in his chosen profession snatched from the very brink of death many of his patients, he at last succumbed to the common fate of us all to come to death. "He saved others, himself he could not save."

My friends, it is impossible for me to recount the many qualities of heart and spirit and mind that endeared Dr. I. K. Urich to his friends and acquaintances, that won him their esteem, their respect and love. Dr. Urich was an incorrigible optimist. Every day was sunshiny to the Doctor and to all those who were fortunate enough to be in his presence. Every day was shunshiny; and his cheery, ready smile, his hearty laugh, his warm hand-clasps quickly dispelled the shadows of doubt and distrust, and renewed the sunshine. He was an optimist in human nature, a firm believer in the good qualities of human nature. He took every man at his best and at his worst, and he could be so taken. In his chosen profession, the medical profession, the Doctor won for himself an enviable reputation by his skill and by his devotion to the welfare of his patients. The many and exacting duties of a country physician, the many and exacting duties of a man placed in the medical profession in a small village, never seemed to tire the Doctor, never seemed to dull his vision, and never seemed to cast gloom on his happy spirit. No weather was too inclement, no storm so severe, as to prevent the Doctor answering a call of the sick when he was needed. As a public servant, the Doctor was a faithful, a courageous, a fearless and intelligent law-maker. He served his district well and faithfully. He was not always right, but he was always sincere. He was not always a diplomat, but he was always truthful.

Time passes, and passes quickly, my friends, and from the circle of our friendship and family faces quickly vanish, snatched away from us by the grim reaper. Memory is short, and only those who have rendered service, only those who by their qualities have endeared themselves to their friends and acquaintances, will continue to live. For such there is no death.

"There is no death; a chill form walks
O'er this land with silent tread
And bears our best love from us away,
And then we call them dead."

Dr. Urich is not dead. He lives in the loving hearts of his family; he lives in the happy memory of his friends; he lives in the grateful memory of the county and State he served so well.

Mr. HICKERNELL. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House: In seconding the motion of my colleague (Mr. Zimmerman) I wish to say that Dr. Isaac Kalbach Urich was born at Myerstown, the son of Daniel and Mary (Kalbach) Urich, on May 3, 1863, and was therefore in the 56th year of his age. He was a scion of one of the oldest families in that region, his ancestors having been prominent in that locality for many years. He attended the public schools of Myerstown until he was old enough to enter the Palatinate Institute (now Albright College) from which institution he was graduated in 1879.

He undertook the reading of medicine with his brother, Dr. Thomas K. Urich, of Annville, the same year, and in 1880 went to Philadelphia where he took a course at the Jefferson Medical College from which he graduated in 1882. He was licensed April 2, 1883, and immediately started in the practice of medicine at Annville, and continued there ever since. He was held in highest regard as a medical man of skill and ability, and he enjoyed a very extensive practice not only in Annville, and the surrounding countryside, but in the city of Lebanon as well.

Mr. SPEAKER, in offering my few remarks in addition to those of the gentleman who has preceded me, on the death of this gentleman, whom I succeeded, only a few days before the general election of 1918, this man, as my colleague has told you, was active professionally; he was a man who was very able and capable and most devoted, and as a man in the legislative halls of our State, he was indeed a factor and courageous. I knew him in the little town from which we come in the county of Lebanon, and he was more than a physician; he was a man who had many business diversions. In other words, he was not only devoted to his profession and to politics, but also was engaged in various enterprises of business, and in all these enterprises he proved himself a man of worth. He was a man who was fearless and he was honest and truthful in his business dealings. In other words, in his business relations with his fellowmen, you could depend upon it when he would give his word that he would perform what he promised; you could depend upon it that he would perform the obligations which he had agreed to perform before hand.

While it is well to give these memorials, it seems to me that if we exercise more of the true feeling of the brotherhood of man these things would not be quite as necessary. I believe in treating my fellowmen well while they live; I believe in treating them with due respect and due courtesy. I believe if possible, that we should treat our fellowmen well at all times. My worthy predecessor, Dr. Urich, was a man who would do that after all that men should do at all times, under all circumstances and on all occasions. Sometimes it seems to me that a little verse I once read is fitting at this time.

"When thou wert a child, thou weepest
While all around thee smiled."

Mr. ZIMMERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I move the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. HICKERNELL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

HON. FRANK J. LEARY MEMORIAL SERVICE.

Mr. CHARLES A. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: I will say a few words in memory of Hon. Frank J. Leary, I wish to say a few words now of one of the members of the House of the 1917 session who came from Erie, Pennsylvania. He was born June 14, 1856, and died suddenly in the office of Dr. Walsh, some few weeks ago, where he had gone to consult his physician, Dr. Walsh. He was sixty-four years of age. Mr. Leary was a democrat in politics and was a business man. He was a man held in high esteem in his home city, and by the members of the House in the 1917 session. Mr. Leary was always interested in legislation. He was a student and carefully considered every bill that was presented before this House. He was a scholar, being educated in the public schools and in Villa Nova college. He is a man who voted his convictions and his word was reliable. He was a good man and his counsel with his family and his friends is no more. His sincerity and honesty of purpose was never questioned, and he was a man of the highest character, a Christian gentleman—quiet, unassuming and loved by every one. Mr. Leary was a member of the school board of the city of Erie and for nine years a trustee of the Erie Public Library, and held many other positions of trust and this was the life of our friend and brother.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the Memorial Services close.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. We will now proceed with the regular order of business.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Mr. HAINES asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. William Krause on account of illness.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Thomas W. Davis, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we are proud of the part taken by Americans in the world war. All nations have a new and higher respect for the military strength of our people. Our objectives in fighting are universally approved. Our covenants of peace carry us into uncharted seas. Help us to exercise great care in taking our bearings. Help us to count the costs and benefits. Help us to stand firmly against any covenants that will deprive us of American ideals, American freedom, American individuality. We pray that Divine Wisdom and courage may be given to those upon whom the responsibility of American terms of peace are laid. These favors we ask in our Saviour's name. Amen.

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I move that the Senate resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 976 (House Bill No. 1095), on third reading, postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to amend section four of an act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred sixty-nine) entitled "An Act regulating policies of insurance against liability arising under article three of the Workmen's Compensation Act of one thousand nine hundred and fifteen providing for the regulation of premium rates therefor and providing penalties for the violation thereof" providing for the approval by the Commissioner of Insurance of the bureau employed to make and apply premium rates for such insurance

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate I would like to inquire what are the provisions of this bill and what is the purpose of this bill? I have not read the bill, but the newspapers say this morning that this bill is for the purpose of one set of insurance people destroying another set, for instance the Grundy Insurance Company wants to destroy some others. If that is true I think this Senate is entitled to the information.

Mr. CROW. Mr. President, I have no personal interest in this bill whatever. I was responsible for its being held up at the instance of some insurance people, who afterwards came and withdrew their objections. It is a bill prepared by Mr. Donaldson of the Insurance Department, known as the Rating Bill, and, as I understand it, the only complaint that has been made against the legislation is from the stock companies, who are largely represented outside of the State, rather than from the local concerns. I think the Senators information is not correct. However, I do not vouch for the bill, I have not made any personal inspection of it.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I have no information except what I have read in the newspapers this morning, that this bill is for the benefit of one set of insurance people destroying another. If that is true I could not support such a bill.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 976 (House Bill No. 1095), entitled:

An Act to amend section four of an act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and sixty-nine), entitled "An Act regulating policies of insurance against liability arising under article three of the Workmen's Compensation Act of one thousand nine hundred and fifteen providing for the regulation of premium rates therefor and providing penalties for the violation thereof" providing for the approval by the Commissioner of Insurance of the bureau employed to make and apply premium rates for such insurance.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—25.

Baldwin, F. E.,	DeWitt,	Leslie,	Snyder,
Beales,	Eyre,	McConnell,	Sones,
Buckman,	Graff,	Miller, S. J.,	Tompkins,
Campbell,	Heaton,	Murdoch,	Turner,
Crow,	Homsher,	Phipps,	Weaver,
Daix,	Leiby,	Smith,	Woodward,
Davis,

NAYS—3.

Barr,	Craig,	Vare,

The PRESIDENT. The Clerk will verify the vote.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, did I understand the Clerk to call the name of Senator Campbell as voting "aye"?

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Mercer, Mr. Campbell, is recorded as voting "aye."

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I challenge that vote. Also Senator Daix is not in his chair.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair desires to inform the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, that the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Daix, asked to be recorded on account of his necessary absence to go to the Appropriations Committee Room.

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I object to the vote of Senator Daix being recorded. It is not the custom of this Senate to record votes when the Senators are not in the room. That certainly never took place in my time around here during the last twelve years.

The PRESIDENT. The name of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Daix, will be stricken from the roll.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as votong "no."

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Chester, Mr. Eyre, will be so recorded.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "no."

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will be so recorded.

The roll having been verified, the yeas and nays were as follows:

YEAS—23.

Baldwin, F. E.,	Graff,	Miller, S. J.,	Sones,
Beales,	Heaton,	Murdoch,	Tompkins,
Campbell,	Homsher,	Phipps,	Turner,

Davis,	Leslie,	Smith,	Woodward,
DeWitt,	McConnell,	Snyder,

Less than a majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the negative.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I voted "no."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. VARE. Mr. President, I have no desire to prevent the bill being reconsidered and being put on the calendar. That will give all hands a chance to look it up. If it is a fair bill and does not interfere with the State Insurance Fund, I will vote for it. We had a hard time getting the State Insurance Fund first in a bill, and second to keep it intact all these years. If this bill does not interfere with it, I will not only vote for reconsideration now, but will vote for the bill next Monday night, or whenever it is called up, after the members have had opportunity to look into it to see whether it does or does not hurt our State Insurance Fund.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

WEDNESDAY, June 4, 1919.

The House met at 10:30 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Robert S. Spangler) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

O Thou, who hast ascended on high, lead captivity captive, in order that Thou mightst give good gifts unto the children of men, grant, we beseech Thee, that each and every man assembled in Thy presence may be captive to Thy Divine guidance and love. Grant unto them further, we beseech Thee, that they may have a high sense of their responsibility, having been selected and elected for a special purpose. Thou knowest, for it has been said of old, because inspired writers have told us so, that where there is no vision the nations perish. We beseech Thee that Thou wilt use these men as the eyes of this State; that Thou wilt reveal unto them good and great things; that Thou wilt keep them true to their trust that they may not be found wanting in doing those things which shall be for the highest welfare of this people. O, we beseech Thee, that each and every man among them may have the courage of his conviction; that there may be no moral cowards, no man to turn away from the truth, however bitter, no man to forsake the right, however strenuous may be the path, but each and every one to be thoroughly and firmly grounded in fact and truth, and may fearlessly make issue with error and lies and the devil, who is the father of all lies. Thou, O God, canst do great things with men who can be lead, but any moral coward, any man who will father a lie, any man who will turn his back on the truth, even Thou, with Thy infinite power, and we say it with fear and with reverence, Thou Thyself are unable to do anything with the sham and the hypocrite and he who will not be true to Thee and to himself. Therefore, bless and keep these men that the courage that comes from conviction, that is the eternal dawning of truth may, be theirs now and at all times. Amen.

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I call for the yeas and nays on this motion.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I second the call for the yeas and nays.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order on this particular amendment because the Constitution of Pennsylvania provides no way in which special acts can be referred to the people of special districts for referendum. The only power that this Legislature has in the referendum is on amendments to the Constitution. I therefore raise the point of order that these amendments are entirely unConstitutional.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, on the question of the point of order raised by the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Ramsey) I want to state to the members of the House that this amendment is perfectly constitutional. I have looked into this matter at length, very thoroughly and exhaustively, and I have before me citations of different cases decided by the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania in which this particular question was brought up

One of the cases decided was the case of Commonwealth vs. Judges of the Quarter Sessions, 8 Barr, 391. In that case the court decided that the Act of Assembly giving the qualified voters of townships out of which new ones were created the right and power to decide by ballot whether the new township shall be continued or annulled is valid and constitutional.

The next case on that subject, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, is the case of the Commonwealth ex. rel. Lyons vs. Painter, decided by the Supreme Court and recorded in 10 Bar, 214, in which it was decided that an Act of Assembly directing the county commissioners to determine the exact site for and to erect public buildings in a new county town if a majority of the voters of the county shall vote in favor of the change is constitutional. Followed by the case recorded in 56 Pennsylvania, 359, of Smith vs. McCartney. In this case the court decided that the submission of the question of the consolidation of the city of Pittsburgh and surrounding territory into one city to a vote by the people was not against the Constitution.

And in Locke's appeal, 72 Pennsylvania, 491, the Court decided that an act allowing voters of the Twenty-second Ward of the city of Philadelphia to vote on the question of granting licenses to sell intoxicating liquors was constitutional.

Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: I can cite you other authorities on the same proposition. The Legislature has had absolute right. It is not a delegation of power. The Constitution provides that the Legislature of Pennsylvania cannot delegate to the people power which it has, but the Supreme Court, in the decisions which I have quoted, has said that the referring of the matter to a majority of the people to vote upon is not such a delegation of power and is therefore constitutional. I ask the gentlemen of the House to sustain this amendment.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: We country members don't seem to have very much in this Philadelphia scrap, whether it be political or otherwise; but it seems to me, gentlemen of the House, that while we have a vote we have a little say in this matter. Yesterday, if I remember correctly, the honorable gentleman from Pittsburgh (Mr. Simpson) tried to make us believe that the majority of the members from Allegheny County represented the sentiment in that county. Evidently we did not believe him for I think we defeated his bill. As to the majority of the members from Philadelphia, it seems that the sentiment in this House is not to take their word for the majority of the sentiment of the people of Philadelphia.

We cannot, seemingly, decide what is right for the city of Philadelphia or the city of Pittsburgh by the membership here, but I think there never was a fairer proposition up to us country people at this time than to allow the people of Philadelphia or the city of Pittsburgh by the member-endum vote. I do not see who can stand in opposition to a proposition of this kind when they ask that the people be allowed to vote on this in November, 1919, and if they so decide that they want this bill, that it shall then become a law. How in the name of common justice can we stand up here, when we are asked to vote for woman's suffrage and the prohibition question, and oppose a measure of this kind when it allows the people of Philadelphia to settle their own troubles. So I think we ought to go along with this amendment because the bill will probably go through anyhow.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to raise a point of order, but it seems to me the question now before the House is whether or not the ruling of the Chair is sustained, or whether the Chair—

The SPEAKER. The second point of order raised by the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Ramsey) is entirely proper. The only question now before the House is the question of the ruling of the Chair. The Chair sustains the point of order of the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Ramsey) that the amendment is not constitutional, that the Legislature has no power to delegate a matter of this kind, and therefore the Chair sustains the point of order of the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Ramsey).

APPEAL FROM THE DECISION OF THE CHAIR.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I appeal from the decision of the Chair.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I second the appeal, and call for the yeas and nays.

The SPEAKER. It requires five members to appeal from the decision of the Chair.

The appeal from the decision of the Chair was seconded by more than five members.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Dithrich) will kindly take the Chair.

MR. DITHRICH IN THE CHAIR.

On the question,

Shall the ruling of the Chair stand as the decision of the House?

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House: In asking you to reverse the decision of the Chair on this very important question that affects the City of Philadelphia, I ask you to use your own judgment in regard to the appeal taken from the decision of the Chair by the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Glass). I want to tell you gentlemen of Philadelphia that the talk has been for home rule. You have had for months in this House the question of charter revision. This question of charter revision has been selected by a certain representative body of citizens of Philadelphia, claiming that they represent the people of Philadelphia, claiming that we as representatives coming from Philadelphia represent nobody. Why should we be here if we do not represent the citizens of Philadelphia as long as we are here? Why should we be here if the people did not send us here to represent them? Reference was made to the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Simpson) when the question of his bill was on the floor. He told you he represented the majority of the people of Allegheny County, that he represented the majority sentiment of the people of Allegheny County. Notwithstanding the entire opposition of the other members from Allegheny County, he said he represented the people: and that is why I am asking you to reverse the decision of the Chair to see whether the people of Philadelphia want this proposition or not by a referendum vote. I want to appeal to you to put the question up to the people, to put this amendment up to the people and let it be decided by the people whether this law, which is going to change the entire working system of Philadelphia—and they know not what additional taxation will be put upon them and have to be paid by the people who have to furnish the money. They are going to pay the taxes if this legislation is passed. I say to you let us reverse the decision of the Chair, and give the people of Philadelphia a fair chance.

Mr. WELLS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: This is my second term as a member of this legislative body, and it is the first time in my experience that the Speaker of this House has assumed to take the responsibility of deciding for himself and for us whether or not a measure presented here is constitutional or otherwise. During the two terms I have been a member of this House, I will venture to assert that there have been at least one hundred bills that have passed this Legislature and been enacted into law upon which the question of their constitutionality could have been raised, and was raised in a great many instances upon the floor of this House; but in no single case do I recall where the Speaker assumed to tell us whether or not the act was constitutional or otherwise. Now you members of this House who are members of the bar, and who are learned in the law, well know that constitutional questions are debatable on both sides and that they are not to be determined, nor can be determined, until the Supreme Court of this State has said whether or not they are constitutional. I say to you men here that this ruling is an unwarranted assumption of power by the Speaker of this House. He assumes to take away from you and from me our constitutional right, the right of passing upon a measure that comes before us. We have a right to say whether or not we think it is constitutional. It is not for him to decide for us. There are two hundred and seven members of this House and every member has the right to voice his opinion as to whether or not this measure is constitutional, and upon the floor of the House has the right to debate that question.

Now whether or not this motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Glass) is a proper motion, do you gentlemen realize that the population of the city of Philadelphia is now in the neighborhood of two million? There are two million people residing in the city of Philadelphia today. We are here today and are asked to legislate to give to those people a new form of government, and we know that those people have not asked for it. I want to say to you men that I represent a district that has a population of over one hundred and forty thousand people, and up to this time I have received but three requests from the residents of that district—and they not voters—that I vote for this measure—three out of a population of over one hundred and forty thousand. Then can you say that this is not a reasonable request that the people of the city of Philadelphia should have the right to determine for themselves whether or not there should be a change in their form of government? You and I have always believed, and do believe to this day, that the people shall decide how they shall be ruled and by what power. You and I know that those two million people have not requested a change in their form of government. I ask you men to vote for this motion, to vote against the Speaker's ruling in this matter, because I regard it as a very serious question for every member in this House.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I regret very much at this time to be called upon to defend the Speaker's rendition of a verdict, because I do not think it is necessary for the men of this House to feel other than that the Speaker is right and correct in his decision, for the reason which I will stipulate. Aside from humiliating the Speaker of this House,—and gentlemen, there is no question of doubt but that when anybody requests the Speaker to leave his place of honorable duty, and to go and sit on the side lines, and that some other member of the House is called upon to take his place, we certainly must look upon that as an act of humiliation. Speaker Spangler has been very fair to us throughout this whole session. A word in reference to the amendments presented to-day. I am speaking now with regard to the causes which have brought about the decision of the Chair. I was present at a meeting of the Municipal Corporations Committee last evening. That meeting was called to be held immediately after the session, either 5:45 or 6:00 o'clock, and because certain amendments were not ready and prepared by Mr. Scott——.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. MILNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. MILNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Heffernan) is not speaking upon the question which is before the House, and I ask the Chair to rule that he confine his remarks to the subject before the House which is the appeal from the decision of the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will confine his remarks to the subject that is before the House.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Thank you, Mr. Speaker, inasmuch as I have been gouged here in my desire to explain to you what leads up to my remarks, I will confine myself at the present time to remarks relative to the Speaker's decision. Gentlemen of the House, this is a matter of grave importance to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,—not alone to the city of Philadelphia, but to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, because the city of Philadelphia is the chief city in this Commonwealth; and we are here to-day asking for those things which are right and proper. I ask you, men of this House, to sustain the Speaker's decision, if for no other reason than the humiliation that has been caused to our Speaker in making him leave his place of duty and go to the side lines. I ask you to vote in the attitude of favoring the decision handed down by our Speaker.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, in relation to the appeal made from the decision of the Chair, on which I only intend to speak, and not discuss the merits of the amendment or the bill, I appeal from the decision of the Chair because I firmly believe that his decision is absolutely wrong.

There isn't a question but that it was snap-judgment on his part. The Speaker's decisions in many instances have been appealed from in my legislative career, and there is no discourtesy to him along these lines. We are all human and must err in our judgment. For a Speaker to be consigned for a few minutes to the side lines is no humiliation, and is not a reflection upon his ability as a presiding officer. The Speaker is here on this floor to defend his challenge. I believe he is absolutely wrong according to the citation of authority that we have looked up last night, this being done in anticipation of the very ruling which has been given. I assure you the decision of the Speaker was not unexpected; and you members of this House know I am able to anticipate matters on account of my connection with legislation matters and not being unexpected, the appeal was entirely in order. The Speaker is here, and we have several other men who will try to prove that his decision is wrong. Later on I expect to ask the indulgence of the Speaker to speak on the amendment as well as the bill, but I appealed from the decision of the Chair because I contend that he was absolutely wrong, and I decided to leave the constitutionality of it up to the House for its decision.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker, I am not here representing any faction. I was elected from my district unanimously by both parties. I am here to see what can be done for the betterment and welfare of the City of Philadelphia especially in this bill. Now gentlemen, this bill has been drafted originally by so-called reformers who are not actually the Republican Party. We members of this House mostly represent the Republican party of Philadelphia, and we are for the party at all times and have the party at heart. Those people who are in back of the bill mostly are Republicans when it is for their own convenience and their own benefit. Now I say this: This amendment has not——

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. LAFFERTY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. LAFFERTY. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the gentleman's remarks are out of order, not relating to the matter of the decision.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Dilsheimer) will confine his remarks to the subject before the House.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker, this amendment which has been introduced by Mr. Glass is in order, for this reason: in the first place, the decision which has been quoted from the Supreme Court, which is the highest tribunal in the State of Pennsylvania, we must defer to. Furthermore, this bill affects Philadelphia considerably. We think we should have protection. Let the people of Philadelphia, the city of Philadelphia, decide for themselves whether they want this bill or want it changed. I believe now is the time for these amendments and I ask you to vote not to sustain the decision of the Chair.

Mr. MILNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Ramsey).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Ramsey) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. MILNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Ramsey) to give his authority for his statement that the motion, or rather the amendment made by Mr. Glass is out of order?

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I quoted my humble authority in my point of order that matters for referendum empowered in the Legislature of this State referred particularly to constitutional amendments, and therefore it was out of order on that account. This is not a matter of constitutional amendment, but a matter of a proposition which refers to the charter rights of Philadelphia, which is vested in the Legislature. Therefore, the Legislature cannot delegate that power.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, when I quoted the authorities to this House a few minutes ago, I took, Mr. Speaker, that that was all it was necessary for me to do. However, since this question was raised by the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Ramsey) that the Legislature has not the right to delegate this power, that this is a delegation of power, I feel that I ought to read what the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania says in one of the cases which has been decided by it.

Mr. Speaker, I will read to you from the fifty-six Supreme Court reports of Pennsylvania, from page three hundred fifty-nine, a decision by Judge Thompson in the case of Smith vs. McCarthney.

The opinion of the court was delivered, November 21, 1867, by Thompson, J.—We are asked to enjoin the defendants from holding an election for members of the councils, mayor and other city officers for the city of Pittsburgh, on the second Tuesday of December next, which it is charged they threaten to hold under the provisions of an Act of Assembly passed the sixth day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred sixty-seven, entitled "A further supplement to the acts incorporating the city of Pittsburgh," Pamphlet Laws one thousand eight hundred sixty-seven, page eight hundred forty-six.

The act provides for incorporating into the city of Pittsburgh certain territory therein described, outside the limits of the city at the time of the passage of the act, leaving the question of consolidation to the people in the districts intended or designed to be consolidated. At the general election in October last, and pursuant to the provisions of the act, a vote by the qualified voters of the several districts was had, and the central district alone gave a majority for consolidation, the other two against it. By the second section of the act, only those sections which should cast a majority of votes for consolidation were to constitute the city. It is plain that as the central district alone voted for consolidation, it alone will be entitled to elect the mayor and other officers named in the act, and the other districts will have no part in the matter.

The bill filed by the complainants charges that the act in question is unconstitutional, and no election can or ought to be held under it. We are not able from anything that has been shown to say that this is so, so far at least as the provisions for consolidation are concerned. It is not unconstitutional to submit such a question to the people. We do not regard it within the principle which forbids the delegation of legislative power. That is applicable to the creation of laws, which the law-making power provided by the Constitution must not delegate. So far as questions like the present are concerned, the Constitution itself furnishes a precedent in the division of counties; so do the Acts of Assembly in regard to the division or establishment of new townships created out of old. In these cases the vote of the districts interested is taken to indicate the choice of the people on the subject.

I will not read all the opinion of this case as it is rather lengthy; I have just read part of it to give the members of this House an idea of what this is about. The Legislature of Pennsylvania had passed an act which provided for the consolidation of the city of Pittsburgh. Certain counties were to become a part of Pittsburgh, and there was a provision in that act providing for the consolidation and which further provided for a majority of the people living in those townships or towns affected by this act who were to be given an opportunity to decide the question in favor of consolidation. Then, as to whether this act was to be operative and otherwise the act was not to become a law. (Mr. Glass at this point requested the Speaker to require that order be maintained in the House).

The SPEAKER. The House will be in order.

Mr. GLASS (continuing). Mr. Speaker, I have other authorities along the same lines, but it is not my intention to take up the time of this House by reading from those authorities. Suffice it to say, that all of these cases hold that what we intend to do by this amendment is not a delegation of power by the Legislature to the people but that it is a right which the Legislature has. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, if it is not a delegation of power, as this case holds, then I submit to you that the decision of the Speaker was incorrect when he said it is unconstitutional. If he has any authorities, I ask him to submit them to this House in contravention to what I have submitted.

Mr. MILNER. Mr. Speaker, I call upon the gentleman from York (Mr. Spangler) to explain his decision and give definite authority for his ruling.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: I did not come here when I made my ruling prepared with any authorities for the reason that I did not know what the gentleman had to offer in the way of amendments. I made my ruling, as I believe, in accordance with the law and in accordance with my best judgment. In 1913 when the commission form of government for third class cities was before this House I had charge of that legislation. The question that was to be determined was the character of city government in cities of the third class. The committee, in charge, was of the opinion that the commission form of government for cities of the third class was the proper form of government. The question was raised at that time: whether or not the form of government to govern cities of the third class would be submitted to the people for their approval. After consulting with municipal officers of the third class cities, and after a most exhaustive consultation of the legal authorities, we came to the conclusion that, although we should like to have submitted to the people the question of whether or not they should have the right to vote for or against the commission form of government, it was found that it was unconstitutional and that the Legislature had no power to delegate that authority to the people of the State. The people of the cities and the Legislature sustained that position, and that is the identical situation here to-day: the question of delegating the authority that the Constitution says shall be vested in the General Assembly of Pennsylvania. It is for that reason and upon that precedent that I made my ruling.

I am not here in favor of one cause as against the other, but I am here, on this floor, to defend a ruling that I have made, because I believe that that ruling is in accordance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. If I had a copy of my speech that I made before this House in the session of 1913, I believe, gentlemen, that I could convince every one of you that there is nothing in this question of delegating this power to the people of Philadelphia and as this bill is drafted by the most eminent legal authority, I believe that these men looked into the legal phases of this question and that they decided that it was impossible to submit it to the people of Philadelphia. I know if it had been possible in 1913 when we changed the form of government of third class cities, that if it had been possible to submit that question to the people under our constitution, it would have been done.

Therefore, I have made my ruling in accordance with what I believe it a sound precedent, in accordance with what I believe to be right, in accordance with what I believe to be the constitutional law of the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. JOHN T. DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me at this particular time, as we are considering matters pertaining to this bill, that there is a disposition manifested on the part of some of the members, to check the progress of this House. I am at a loss to know, gentlemen, why these resolutions are presented at this time, for three reasons: First, that this bill that is here on second reading has been discussed from the very beginning of the session. Second, that both the Senate and the individuals who are interested in this bill have been discussing it continuously and; Third, that we are now coming to a resolution to stop the progress of this bill here in the House. I say to you, gentlemen, that the Speaker of this House should be upheld in his decision, because he has so well represented the facts bearing and governing his decision, that we should no longer discuss this proposition but should immediately take a vote and decide this question in order that we may pass on to other legislation that is calling for our attention. We have been discussing and discussing this bill and killing time, and I, therefore, move that we proceed with the vote. I move the previous question.

The previous question was moved by twenty members, as follows: Mr. John T. Davis, Baldrige, Brady, Campbell, Jno. T. Wallace, Bungard, Dawson, Ehrhardt, Flynn, Fowler, Gans, Hess, Jordan, Mallery, David I. Miller, Norton, Phillips, Chas. A. Shaffer, Sinclair, and Wagner.

On the question,

Shall the main question now be put?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The question is: shall the ruling of the Chair stand as the decision of this House? Those voting in the affirmative, vote to sustain the ruling of the Chair; those voting in the negative, vote to overrule the ruling of the Chair.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I call for the yeas and nays.

Mr. MILNER. Mr. Speaker, I second the call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. COX, and Mr. MILNER, WELLS, LEVIS, SOWERS were as follows:

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BRENDLE. Mr. Speaker, this bill before the House is a bill that is not wanted by the sportsmen of Pennsylvania. Whenever we asked for better protection of game we were turned down. We have now accumulated a fund of five hundred thousand dollars, and the main objection to this bill is that it will open wide the door for a few politicians to get hold of our funds. We know that previous to the passage of the Resident Hunter's License Act, which required a dollar to be paid by each one into the treasury of the State, we received no recognition whatever from the State but well we know that after a fund has been created, that it appears that where the carcass lies the eagles will assemble, and where there is a fund created, the politicians will assemble. This bill has been amended to satisfy the men of the Wild Life League, but, gentlemen, we know they are satisfied as it is amended because that is the only thing that could be expected under existing conditions. June first was the date set forth when this was to go into effect if this bill passed finally, but the Wild Life League was satisfied with January 1, 1920. It was the only thing to keep them from getting immediate action. Therefore, gentlemen, in behalf of the sportsmen of the State, I ask that you vote down this bill, because of the fact that they are trying to tell you that the intention of this bill is not to get hold of the fund, which they are actually trying to do. Gentlemen, there is a trick in this bill, after all is said and done. The point is that in the two years to come they can lay hands on our funds, and we cannot stand for it. I have spoken with the men in general, the sportsmen of the State, and they simply feel inclined to this point, that it is an unjust thing to pass because of the fact that Berks County alone, which I represent, has paid to this State eighty-three thousand dollars in seven years. Is there any reason for us at this time to consider any other form of government as to our funds which we have so accumulated? Therefore, gentlemen, if you want to work in behalf of the sportsmen of the State, while that boy in the rural district is willing to pay his dollar for the privilege of hunting, it is only right that he should have some say as to what will be done with that dollar. It is not for a few men of the State to say what shall be done with the funds which the sportsmen have accumulated in the State of Pennsylvania. It is for the men who pay that money to say what shall be done with it. I have stood before you men and put in a bill asking for better protection of game. I have been relegated to a sub-committee and you have allowed the bill to die there. I decided to see Mr. Kalbfus myself, inasmuch as I was particularly interested in three species of birds in Pennsylvania which were not migratory birds, which my bill called for. You speak of conservation and reconstruction but in your conservation of these dollars it is for a reconstruction that means that a few politicians in Pennsylvania wish to construct a body of men to decide among themselves how this is to be used. Therefore I ask you, in behalf of the sportsmen of Pennsylvania that you do not pass this piece of legislation, which is not wanted by the sportsmen.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I rise at this time to ask a question. We were told a few weeks ago by different speakers that the State Constabulary would take over the fish and game wardens. I at that time did not believe that the bill meant what it said. This bill now shows that the Secretary of Conservation shall appoint such numbers of game protectors, special game protectors, fish wardens, etc., as may be necessary. The point I want to know is this: It also says the Secretary of Conservation may appoint and remove such other officers and other employes who perform such duties. Does that mean that the Secretary of Conservation has the right to discharge the State Police? Is there any member in the House who can give me that information?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, the bill which we have now before us for consideraion is a bill by which the Governor intends to carry out the pledges made by him to the people of this State at the time he was inaugurated.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. DAWSON. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. BALDRIGE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, this bill has been so amended in section 14 that it excludes from its operations domestic mutual fire insurance companies of Pennsylvania. Section 29 is amended requiring license fees and cannot therefore apply to the other companies. Section 20 as heretofore construed, has never applied to domestic mutual fire insurance companies and will not be construed as applying to mutual companies. I merely make that statement because some misunderstanding has arisen concerning this bill. I might say that no part of this amended bill shall apply to any Pennsylvania mutual fire insurance company.

Mr. GRIEST. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman where we will find the amendments in this bill.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, this is House Bill No. 1639, file folio 5579, and the amendments appear on page 5583, as follows: "Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed as applying to domestic mutual fire insurance companies."
